

If you are acquainted with a certain route to get somewhere, you probably follow it consistently. So you seldom get lost. One of life's great (perhaps greatest) handicaps is that very few people know safe routes for every path that living requires them to travel. So, in choice, opportunity, moral, many of us become lost.

MRS. LEROY KIEFER of Willow Lane (left) recently opened her home for a "worker's tea" AAUW women working on the annual benefit fashion show. Making plans over tea cups are Mrs. John E. Eckenrode, Mrs. George H. Coleman, Mrs. James K. Bain and Mrs. N. J. Rakas.

To Present Summer Fashions

"A Preview of Summer Fashions", sponsored by the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women, will find many Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women down town May 7.

Shopping Is Convenient As In Birmingham

Where There Is Always Plenty of Parking

On the map above are indicated the offstreet parking facilities in Birmingham. They include municipal as well as privately-owned lots. All are open to the public. In addition to offstreet parking, 600 metered spaces are available on the streets in the downtown area. The most recently opened lot is the municipal lot located between Hamilton and Oakland. Featuring many all-day meters among its 177 parking spaces, it's a sure bet for quick parking any day of the week, and it's only 2 minutes from Woodward and Maple. Another municipal lot is located at Pierce and Brown streets. Two other municipal lots are now under construction. One is located at Forest & Brown and the other on Hamilton just west of Hunter Blvd. both will open this year. Every store in Birmingham is within a minutes' walk from one of the many lots. Shop in Birmingham. It's Convenient!

Now, added to the wonderfully varied shopping facilities in Birmingham is added a convenience you may never have dreamed existed. Parking facilities for over 1000 cars.

An offstreet parking development program backed by the Birmingham retail merchants and the Chamber of Commerce has accounted for the rapid increase in parking facilities in Birmingham, facilities that mean SHOPPING CONVENIENCE FOR YOU.

Birmingham is adding more than parking to its repertoire of shopper facilities. Last year 76 new and remodeled stores offered the latest in redesigned quarters. You'll find every type of store in Birmingham and products in every price range.
