

Easter Bunny Accents Balloon Tree Decor

An Easter party marking the 10th birthday of Donald Cornett, son of the Fred Cornetts of Hickory Heights drive was a howling success last Saturday afternoon with 40 children joining in the fun.

The party got under way with a mad scramble through the Cornett's grounds hunting for the 200 Easter eggs. In the Cornetts garden stood a very colorful balloon tree with an Easter bunny balancing at the top. The foundation for the attractive balloon tree was an outside clothes dryer. A "cook-out" made a big hit, with hot dogs, cakes, birthday cake and ice cream disappearing as if by magic.

Mr. and Mrs. George Everson of Changin' Cross road entertained at a tea Sunday afternoon, April 14, for their daughter and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown and family from Glenview, Ill.

Highlight of the afternoon was the christening of baby Cynthia Brown, daughter of the F. J. Browns, which was performed by Reverend S. Jorgensen. The christening brought back memories of years ago when Reverend Jorgensen christened the baby's mother. He also officiated at the marriage of the baby's parents. Many friends of former years were here to greet Mrs. Brown. The other children in the family are Patrick, Timothy and Kevin.

Entertaining at a Mother and Daughter tea were George, Molly and daughter, Sue, of Upton drive, Thornwood. The tea was held on Sunday afternoon, April 14, for 50 friends and their mothers of the Gai Amia club of Merit high school in Detroit. Centered on the tea table was an attractive arrangement of large yellow daffodils surrounded with clusters of lavender heather and flanked by tall blue candles.

There will be a Library Benefit tea at the Eastover school, 1:30 p.m., May 2. Dr. Harry Hahn, director of the Oakland County Reading Clinic will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Parents Can Help Too."

The function on the tea will be a donation of any suitable child's book, new or used.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Linder of Westchester road, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their son, Peter. His fiancée is Mrs. J. J. Fioravere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fioravere of Loomis, N. J. Both Peter and Jennifer are attending Pratt Institute, School of Industrial Design, Brooklyn, N. Y., and will be graduated in June.

The wedding will take place at the Presbyterian church at Loomis, N. J., on June 14. The bride-elect, a maid of honor will be her twin sister, Jeanette, while the best man will be Bruce Cushman of Yorkville, N. J. The Linders and son, Gy, will make the trip to Loomis for the wedding.

The Fred Bigelows of North Adams road entertained houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grant, of Chatham, Ontario, Canada, over the Easter weekend. On the agenda was an evening at the Detroit Athletic club, a shopping trip, and a dinner party including friends from Dearborn was held for Easter Sunday.

Flying in to spend the Easter holidays with the Leon Jackmans of Beech road, is Mrs. Jackman's sister, Mrs. C. Robert Rothwell of Santa Anna, Calif. With Mrs. Rothwell are her three children, Brooke, Jayne and Brad. They plan on a six weeks' stay. Mrs. Rothwell is the former Sarah Bethel. Two years have elapsed since their last reunion.

Houseguests at the Douglas Clark home on Tully road are Mrs. Clark's mother and sister, Mrs. A. L. O'Brien and Mrs. E. Wickus of Meriden, Conn. They arrived by plane on April 16 and will spend some time with the Clarks.

Anniversary wishes were in order for the Joseph Paulicks of Tully road when the Randall Mulvanys also of Tully, honored them at a cocktail and dinner party the evening of April 11.

Those joining in the celebration of the fifteenth wedding anniversary were, the Jack Simpsons, the Don Hoskins, all of Chatham.

Dr. and Mrs. James Mimura of Huntington road announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Sue, on April 6. The baby was born at Simpson hospital and weighed 8 lbs. 2 oz. They have two other children, Judy 6, and Paul 4.

The Robert Botts of Haddington road announce the birth March 21, of a daughter, Martha DuChesne. She weighed 8 lbs. 3 oz., and was born at St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Pontiac. Waiting at home for mother and baby were Brian 4, Eric 2, and Kathleen 1.

Mrs. P. H. Hamby, president of the Osage Garden club, entertained the club's outgoing officers at a luncheon in her Orchard Hill drive home on Wednesday afternoon, April 17. The luncheon table was attractively centered with an arrangement of spring flowers.

Attending were vice presidents Mrs. Frederick Stenfansky and Mrs. William Dewey; treasurer, Mrs. Michael Reiffold; secretary, Mrs. Howard Senteney; and bond-erick Oliver. Also present were Mrs. Thomas La Rue, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. George Robb, Mrs. Richard Smith, Mrs. Robert Brandon and Mrs. Warren Wood. Mrs. William McCallum of the Birmingham Garden club also attended.

New officers will be elected for the coming year at their May meeting.

Home again after a week of visiting and sight seeing are the John L'Hotes of Woodside court. They motored to Westminster, Maryland, during their children's Easter vacation where they were houseguests of Colonel and Mrs. S. S. MacLaughlin. Two days were spent touring Washington, D. C., with the little L'Hotes, John, Timothy and Tru. Gettysburg and its historical sights were taken in another day.

Another family touring Washington, D. C., during their children's Easter vacation were the Richard Dintanens of Sunnyhill court.

They made their headquarters at the Robert Dintanens of Alexandria, Va., a brother of Mr. Dintanens. Enjoying the busy 10 days were Denise 10, David 8, Dale 4, and Danny 1.

The Dintanens saw some of Washington's night life. On one occasion they dined with the Robert Dintanens at the Officers Club.

The John Kinseys of Hylane circle hosted a dinner party on Saturday evening, April 13, honoring Mrs. Austin Briggs, wife of the late Mr. Briggs. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley of Ann Arbor, Judge and Mrs. Lorne Webber of Gibraltar, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Leon Haveland Mr. and Mrs. Shan Rosso of Birmingham.

The Hansel and Gretel Operetta played to a packed house on the evening of April 17, at Pembroke school auditorium, with many North Adams parents attending. The operetta was played by the three fourth grades, headed by teachers Miss Stretlein, Mrs. Irish and Mrs. Dallas.

Contests have been in full swing at the Eastover school these past weeks, getting ready for the school fair May 18. Harold DeWitt won "name the fair contest" with the title "Frontier Frolic" and was awarded a red and white ribbon and a check for tickets to be used one for afternoon and one for evening performances. Narrators, Dick Posey and Natalie Verriek; Gretel, Sheila Smith and Nancy Evans; Hansel, Douglas Fehan and Greg Page; mother, Jan Ekberg and Nan Simmons; father, David and Alan Lindow; witch, Diane DeLeon and Laura Riv-domzal, sixth grade. Nancy Cousin, sixth grade, was awarded a white ribbon and a check for fair tickets for the best school poster. Janet Dewey, fifth grade took second place. Chairman and judges were Mrs. Phil Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray and Mr. and Mrs. William Heaton.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the society editor about them.
