

Birmingham to Host State PTA Conference

Birmingham will play host to the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers at the Annual Spring Conference and Workshop of District VII, Oakland County.

"Problems, Techniques, Action" will be the theme of the May 8 event at Derby Junior high school. Oakland County has 15 councils, 212 local units and over 51,000 members. The annual district meeting had been planned through the combined efforts of all 15 Councils of the district who meet once a month with the district director.

THE OFFICERS, committee chairman and members were the primary concern in setting up the workshop in the hope that those attending will find the instruction, guidance and inspiration necessary to carry on the work so it will be a pleasure rather than a task.

Working on various committees are Mrs. George Martin, chairman of hospitality and Mrs. Robert Bender, co-chairman, both of Bar-num junior high school; Mrs. Vincent Currier of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs; and Mrs. John R. Tate of Holy Name, registration; Mrs. D. C. Babcock, Jr., and Mrs. Richard L. Haviland, both of Perseus publications; and Mrs. Claude E. Whipple of Beverly school, publicity.

The list continues with Mrs. Frederick V. Gels of Franklin, decorations; Carter Bowen, Derby junior high, arrangements; Girl Scout groups 258 and 428, name tags; Boy Scout troop B-25, color guards; and Mrs. Vincent S. Madison of Beverly school, general chairman.
