Beverly Social Briefs

The home of Mrs. V. H. Lamb was the scene of a luncheon and bridge last Thursday honoring Mrs. Charles Burke of Warwick who, with her family, is moving to Detroit. Guests were Mrs. Robert Gilfert, Mrs. Richard Ganchan, Mrs. William E. Eyer, Mrs. A. F. DeRoiser, Mrs. Paul Garriep, Mrs. Charles J. Dameron, and Miss Harriet Becker.

The home of the William F. Besses on Beaconsfield drive was a busy place during the Easter holiday. Both Barbara, who teaches in Hyde Park, N. Y., and Patricia, who attends Ohio Wesleyan were home. They also had a house guest, Victor French of Washington, D. C.

Billy who attends Birmingham high was on vacation, and Mr. Ross who commutes between Birmingham and Rockford, Ill., was home for a few days. We regret that Billy will soon be losing the Ross family to Rockford, Ill.

Mr. Richard Horton of Cincinnati was the house guest of the Danig Dreyers on Auburn. He attends the University of Cincinnati and is Phi Delta Theta.

We are sorry to lose the Roscoe Beringers who formerly lived on Mayfair Lane, but know they will be happy in their new home in Orchard Valley. We hope they will return often to visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul J. Montez, and their good friends, the Keith Nabbits of Birmingham, journeyed to Detroit one evening last week to see "DAMN YANKEES" and to have late supper after the theatre.

Twenty-two members of the West Beverly Hostess Club attended a surprise farewell luncheon on April 12, honoring Mrs. William F. Ross of Beaconsfield Dr., at the home of Mrs. S. E. Whittlesby on Hillcrest Dr. Mrs. Ross who is the retiring president of the club was presented with a gift.

The H. E. Hesselberg's of Amherst have as their house guests Mrs. Hesselberg's mother, Mrs. H. W. Wilim, Prairie Village, Kan., and her aunt, Miss Bonnie Thompson of Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. Hesselberg's mother, Mrs. Eugene Hesselberg of Des Plaines, Ill., was recently here for a visit and to attend the confirmation of her granddaughter, Penny on Palm Sunday at the Reformer Lutheran Church in Birmingham.

John N. Miller, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Miller of Birwood who attends Valley Forge Military school at Wayne, Pa., was home for Easter vacation. John, who is 14, is in Troop D, Cavalry Division.

The George Monrook of Birwood travelled to Lansing to spend the

Beverly Women Active In Detroit Stage Group

By AILEEN STOCKER

The smell of stage make-up will be heavy over the East Beverly area this coming season for Mrs. Gene Nelson and Mrs. Ben Burda of Beechwood who are active members of The Detroit Civic Theatre.

John F. Caricco, director, announces a four-show season. The group presented "Plenic" at Boughn Hall, Detroit, for two nights in March to a full house. Nan Burda was cast as Flo Owens, mother of the two daughters in the play.

AT THE spring meeting of the Community Theatre Association of Michigan, held April 16, at Saginaw, Nan Burda was appointed to publish the "news letter," a monthly publication distributed to all members of the community theatre group in Michigan.

Director John F. Caricco, of Chrysler sales distribution, has
