

Maple West Social Briefs

A 7000-mile motor trip to the west has just been completed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. French of Pickering road. With them were their children, Carolyn, Jimmy, Charles and Dorothy Jo.

Aside from a 10-day visit with Mrs. French's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Cory of Los Angeles, they made stops in El Paso, Juarez, Grand Canyon and Las Vegas.

Visits to Disneyland and Kott's Dairy Farm delighted the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mustard and daughter Linda of Wingcroft court have returned from a three-week motor trip to Maria Island near Braidenton, Florida, where they spent two weeks.

Enroute home they came through North and South Carolina and on to Washington, D.C. Their home-ward route from Washington was via the Pa. and Ohio turnpikes.

Mrs. Albert Carr, Franklin road, recent recruiting chairman for the A.R.C. blood bank of Wing Lake school area, including Foxcroft, Wing Lake, Franklin, wishes to express her thanks to the many "champions" whose tireless efforts made this the most successful event held in this area.

Wing Lake Farms welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Cunningham who have moved into the home purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elder who recently took residence in California.

The Cunninghams and their 13-year old son Bill moved in from Shelbyville, Indiana, April 12. Mr. Cunningham is an engineer with General Electric. Son Bill feels exceptionally fortunate to find accommodations for his home, Ace and Sissy, just a few short steps from his new home.

Dr. Wallace M. Cutts of Wing Lake road was among the carefully selected guests and parents to witness the solemn initiation ceremony of their son Ross into Delta Upsilon fraternity at Michigan State university.

Ross, a sophomore, made the freshman ice hockey team last year and will try for varsity next year. He intends to major in business and speech.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. O'Brien and sons Bobby and Pat of Sudor Lake road and Mr. and Mrs. John Childs, Jr. of Deery Lane and children John and Sherry flew to Lauderdale-by-the-Sea where they took an apartment for two weeks.

They enjoyed both pool and ocean swimming and night clubbing and meeting several Detroit friends.

The men found deep-sea fishing fascinating while Pat O'Brien found himself celebrating his eighth birthday with surrounding apartment children. He invited them for ice cream and cake around the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wright of Tator court are home from a five-week vacation at Casey Key near Sarasota, Florida. With their children Bruce, Dorothy and Bill, they took a cabin and enjoyed lots of fishing from the 22-foot cruiser of Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wright. Every day swimming in the gulf appealed to the children.

In Pompano, Florida, for two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Sunningdale leased a large home, complete with luxurious pool, and 35-foot sea-kiff. They enjoyed entertaining at numerous barbecues.
