Kiddy-Klatch, Coffee, Birthdays and Bridge: A Week's Yield of Fun

St. Jane de Chantal guild from Holy Name church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Ross of 1544 Withers, Troyton Manor, March 25th. Mrs. Clyde Mulhern presided over the meeting.

The entertainment committee had as guest speaker for the evening Mr. Daniel Verrier, hair stylist from Jacobson's Beauty Salon. Mr. Verrier gave a very interesting and instructive lecture on the care of your hair and items of styling and setting.

The evening closed after coffee and tea were served by the co-hostesses Mrs. Thomas Schulte.

FIRST BIRTHDAY

Little Willie Penninger was honored guest of a birthday party given by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger of 1611 Withers. To celebrate his first birthday were in sister Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whelan, Jr. and children Susan, Michael and J. L. For room and cake was the highlight of the festivities for the children.

Another first birthday party was celebrated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hilbert of 1704 Withers for their son Johnny. To help celebrate the occasion was Johnny's grandmother Mrs. Vickers of Detroit and his sister Mary Jo.

"Kiddy-Klatch" was the topic of discussion for the Graefield home-making extension unit at the Parklane Court home of Mrs. George Combe on Wednesday, March 27th. Mrs. Donald Senestaken displayed a variety of toys loaned to her by a local merchant and gave an interesting lecture on home to amuse children during illnesses. Also she brought many interesting points on how to give a successful child's party.

The group also made plans for a bridge party in which the proceeds will be given to the Oakland County cripple children's association.

All enjoyed dessert and coffee served by the co-hostesses Mrs. Hugh Golligly and Mrs. Alvie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Greer, 1657 Graefield road, will bid farewell to their friends and neighbors in the Graefield Terraces. Greer is being transferred to New Jersey.

HOME ASSOCIATION

The Program committee of the Troyton Manor home-makers association held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Lippard, 870 Brooklawn road. The chairman, Mrs. Phil Klintworth outlined the program for the year to attending members Mrs. Harry Leather and Mrs. Howard Ross.

A combination birthday and farewell party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross of 1554 Withers. Mrs. Ross' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Schulte, were for a months motor trip around Florida but the night before they left they took time out to help celebrate their daughter-in-law Mrs. Thomas Schulte's birthday.

Also present at the festivities were Tommy and Nancy Jo Schulte, Peggy and Mary Lou Ross, Mr. R. Brock and Jim Schulte.

Mrs. Eugene Morze, 886 Brooklawn road, has been kept busy the last two week-ends with birthday parties for two of her children. On March 23rd she entertained her son Craig and three classmates from Derby junior high school at a specially prepared birthday party at a local restaurant. Guests were Richard Greene, John Carter and James Goloneck. Also in the group were Craig's sister and brothers Minta Brian and Mark.

The party was such a success that a repeat performance was staged on March 30th when Morze entertained five of her daughter Minta's friends and their mothers for Minta's eighth birthday. Enjoying the festivities were Mrs. William Mahan and Wendy, Mrs. Harry Lippard and daughters Mary and Sandra, Mrs. Frank Barnes and Martha and Christing Sparks.
