PTA Slates April 9 For Discussion on Special Education

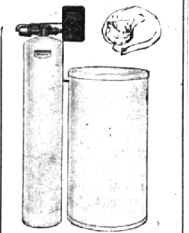

LATHRUP—The Lathrup school P.T.A. meeting on April 9 at 8 p.m. will feature a continuation of the panel discussion that was held in the fall of the school year. Teachers will discuss school problems which have been submitted by parents are Miss Kathryn McLean, Mrs. Vera Seymour, Miss Lucile Gilbert and Mrs. Ann Cameron.

There will also be short talks by special education teachers, who will emphasize the importance of special education in a well rounded school curriculum. The talks will be presented by Frank Lane, band; Dorothy Davis, music; Claire Hammer, art; David Sebring, gym and Mildred Bechard, speech.

On the refreshments committee are the third grade room mothers, Mrs. Francis Zaher, Mrs. Ernest Hodas, Mrs. John Elliott, Mrs. James Doughlas, Mrs. Charles Stebbins and Mrs. Stanley Hich.

The port of New York, the nation's largest, employs 25,000 longshoremen on its piers.

Seven Receive Highest Award at Scout Banquet

"It's all over now." Nice title for a popular ballad? If there is a tune with words like those, Mrs. Webster Owen, Mrs. Frank Fleischer, Girl Scout leaders, and neighborhood mothers are probably singing it.

For five Thursdays in a row, leaders and mothers have worked to prepare the father-daughter banquets for the 240 registered Girl Scouts and Brownies in Lathrup neighborhood. Last Thursday's senior carnival and buffet dinner for girls and dads was the last.

During the gala evening seven Girl Scouts receiving their curved bar awards. The curved bar is the highest award a Girl Scout can receive and is equivalent to Eagle among the Boy Scouts of America.

Girls receiving the awards were Barbara Craig, Pat Isaacson, Carol Beck, Sharon Fleischer, Kate Dickerson, Jo Berner and Isabell Owen. These girls bring the number of Curved Bar holders in Lathrup Neighborhood to ten. Mary Lou Hines, Kay Plantree and Sandy McCall received their awards last year.

Unable to find any dads who had attended all of the banquets, or even four of them, the leaders were interested to note that four

Lathrup Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Mackay Jr. of E. California are selling their home and moving to California. They will locate somewhere near Los Angeles, leaving the first of May.

Lathrup girl scout troops 487 and 491 enjoyed a recent weekend at Greenfield Village with leader Mrs. Eugene J. Gardulski and three other mothers, Mrs. Woodrow Nelson, Mrs. Thomas Adams and Mrs. James Fuller.

The group went Friday evening, spending the evening singing, in the gymnasium and seeing movies. They spent the night in the dormitory and toured the village on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stephen Gilley of E. California are moving about the middle of May to their newly purchased home in Franklin Village on Seaside drive.

Their daughter Mary, age 10, is looking forward to attending the Franklin Village elementary school and is hoping she can celebrate her May birthday in her new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. McManus of E. California who have two sons, Gregory and Jeffrey, feel very happy that their new baby is a little girl. She is Andrea Gene, born March 9 and weighing seven pounds, four ounces.

To Mr. and Mrs. Marvin M. Gielow of Woodworth Way, Mexico is the ideal vacation land. They have just returned from their third trip there.

They travelled by air to Mexico City where they spent two days and then on to Taxco for another two days. At the El Potosi del Rey hotel in Acapulco, they spent the remainder of their time just shop-

Lathrup PTA Sets Paper Drive For Camping Funds

LATHRUP—Lathrup school P.T.A. recreational committee is sponsoring a paper and magazine drive at the school tomorrow morning at 8:40 a.m. through Saturday at 5 p.m.

School children should bring their papers in the usual manner. Anyone who would like to have them picked up may call Mrs. John Schobinger, of 2738 Lexington, or Mrs. James Short of 2724 Red Leaf Lane, on or before Friday.

Papers will be picked up Saturday. They should be tied in small bundles.

Proceeds of the paper drive will benefit the fifth grade camping trip to the Lake Huron camp in April. Working with Mrs. John Schobinger, chairman of the drive, are Mrs. James Short, Mrs. Charles Brigner and Mrs. Harry Morris.

Spring Festival

May 4 has been set for the date of the Lathrup school P.T.A. Spring Carnival. According to Mrs. James B. MacDonald, the entire school will be a beehive of fun and activities. Plans are being made for games and gift booths, a snack bar, pastry shop, flower and white elephant stands. Mrs. H. J. Anderson will be chairman of the book and record exchange. She will appreciate a call from anyone who wants to houseclean a few good books or records.

he and his wife are now living. Their other son, Douglas R. Jordan who was discharged from the army in January and his wife and two sons have just moved into their new home in Clawson. He is employed at Barroughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon visited James and his wife in Lansing Sunday, taking their 18-month-old grandson with them.

Mrs. Eugene McManus will entertain 18 neighbors and friends at a dessert-coffee April 11 in honor of Mrs. Vincent K. Strohm who is moving to California.

Mrs. Ovid Lund will pour and there will be polaroid pictures taken and a gift from the group.

Christopher Goddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Goddard of Elfordale celebrated his sixth birthday in March with supper, games and prizes for six. His guests were Mark Milne, David Timothy, Helen Neveau, and Roy Neveau, Kenny Holloway, a cousin from Detroit and his sister Debbie.

Christopher and his brothers and sisters have been kept busy with chickenpox since the party so he feels lucky that at least he had his party first.

Russell Gotberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gotberg of Lathrup Boulevard will be married April 5, at the Evangelical Covenant church of Detroit.

Russell's bride is Ruth Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Porter of Detroit. There will be a reception at Devon Gables. Following their honeymoon they will make their home in Detroit.

Alan M. Shaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gase of W. 12 Mile road is home for spring vacation from Dartmouth where he is a freshman in pre-law.

A recent houseguest of Mrs. Gase was her sister Mrs. Robert Cork of Alexandria, Va. Her husband is Major General Robert Cork who is assistant deputy commander of the U. S. Air Force.

At a dinner given in her honor Mrs. Gase entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Stevens of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Wayne McDonald of 12 mile road, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cork of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Noel Marinas of Beckley.

James H. Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gordon of Glenwood graduated from Michigan State university last month. He is majoring in contracting and building and has started his own business in suburban Lansing where
