WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

Better Health
Through Knowledge

• Cancerphobia • Cigarette Smoking • Oriental Flu

Q. Are public cancer educational programs helpful or harmful?

A. Yes to the judge. In 1935 a prominent American physician made a strong plea for less public talk about cancer. The doctor charged that public cancer education causes "cancerphobia" (irrational fear of developing cancer). Later the University of Wisconsin made a survey on public cancer education among cancer patients and members of their families. The vast majority (84 per cent) thought that present cancer educational programs had been "just right" or "too little."

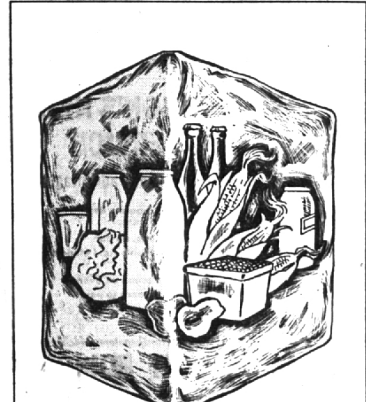

Q. Will shots ward off the new type flu that is now sweeping some countries?

A. A vaccine to prevent Asian (H3N2) influenza is not available at this time but several U. S. vaccine manufacturers are in a preliminary position.

Slates Two-Week
Vacation School

The doors of Ascension Lutheran church open to children of the congregation and the community for vacation Bible school, beginning Monday.

Believing that at the end of the vacation months children will be more appreciative of guided activities to fill the morning hours, this year's course has been deferred to the last two weeks of August.

The school will be conducted for two weeks, Monday thru Friday, from nine till 11:45. Activities will include Bible Lessons, entitled "Grant Us Thy Grace," appropriate handwork, directed play activities, along with movies, songs and memory work. While the church makes no charges for any of its services, a fee will be suggested to cover the expenses of the school.

The staff will be composed of Sunday school teachers, former school teachers and other trained members of the congregation. The objective of the school is not merely to fill the idle hours of the children, but to effectively direct their time toward growth in Christian faith, knowledge and experience. All are welcome, aged four and over. Advance registration may be made by calling the church from nine till 11:45. Activities will

MR. THOMAS M. HALL

Jehovah's Witnesses
To Convene

The Birmingham congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will meet with approximately 1400 members of the denomination expected to gather Aug. 30 through Sept. 1 at Royal Oak's Dondero high school auditorium.

Kenneth Pulifer, 5825 Lenox drive, Birmingham, is presiding minister to the Birmingham group, which consists of 105 members from Berkeley, Birmingham, and parts of Southfield.

Mr. Pulifer said the three-day assembly was sponsored by the Watchtower society of Brooklyn, N. Y. Its purpose is for instruction in the Bible and problems of daily living. Mr. Pulifer will lead a demonstration on how ministerial work is done.

THE CONVENTION, called a Circuit Assembly, will bring together 19 congregations in this area, including Fort Huron, Mt. Clemens, Kaiser, Pontiac, Holly and intervening points. This is the first Jehovah's witness convention in Royal Oak.

Mr. Angelo C. Manera, Jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y., will be the featured speaker of the event, appearing on the program each of the three days and delivering the principal address at 3 p.m. Sunday on "What Are the Prospects for Lasting Peace?"

Jehovah's Witnesses have organized their 16,000 congregations in 100 countries into groups or circuits of about 25 congregations which meet twice each year for a Circuit Assembly. The Royal Oak meeting will be one of those. The program consists of morning, afternoon and evening sessions with Bible sermons, explanations and demonstrations in preparing the Kingdom good news and right living.

Mr. Pulifer said.

Headquarters for the convention are located at Jehovah's Witnesses Kingdom hall, 3022 North Main street, Royal Oak.
