Beverly Hills Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horan of Beechwood and their children, Linda, 11, Frank, 8, and Peter, 3, have returned from a two-week grand tour of Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and parts of Canada.

At Gettysburg, Pa., they saw the famous battlefield of the Civil War and President Eisenhower's farm home.

In Roselle, N. J., they paid a visit to Mrs. Horan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Delden. While in New York city, they visited the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, the Planetarium and Radio City Music Hall. They then travelled through New York state to Fort Ticonderoga and the Adirondack Park, returning by the Canadian route to see the Eisenhower Lock of the new St. Lawrence Seaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hirt and daughter, Shirley Ann, of Kinross, have just returned from a most delightful vacation at Windermere on the Muskoka Lakes in Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Tall of Riverside, recently spent two weeks at Lake Orion with their five children, Pam, 10, Chiny, 8, Douglas, 5, and baby Tommie. During their stay Doug and Steve became adept on water skis and surf-boarding.

Mrs. Chas. H. Baker of Devonshire had the pleasure of visiting her young nieces, Pamela and Kristine Frank of Dayton, Ohio, as her guests for ten days. She just returned after having driven them to their home in Dayton.

Mrs. Geo. Lineberg of Dunblaine left today to drive her eight-year-old twins, Janet and Jeffrey to Chicago, where Jeff will trade places with son Skipper, 13, who has been visiting his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hitzler of Lake Shore Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lineberg of Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Mrs. Folmer Jensen of Oswego, Oregon, formerly a resident of West 14 Mile Road, returned to Birmingham for a visit and enjoyed a most pleasant luncheon with former friends, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. Frank Staroba, Mrs. Elmer C. Ray and daughter Janice.

Events in the Theo. Ducharme household on Birwood have been crowding each other this past week. Daughter Nancy returned from summer school at Michigan State; the family travelled to Flint for the graduation ceremonies of son Edward from the General Motors Institute; next Sunday, Mrs. Ducharme and Nancy leave to drive nice Sally and nephew Bruce Hempton to their home in Baltimore, Md. On the 18th, daughter Barbara will fly to Denver for a one-week visit in preparation for her return to school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Detweiler with their children, Kathy, Kristy and Chuckie, have returned to their home on Devonshire after a wonderful month at Point Nipaw on the Straits of Mackinac. Mrs. Detweiler's mother, Mrs. Edward P. Prippe was their house guest during their stay.

Bill, Dick and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland W. Rosemont of Devonshire have had two vacations this summer: one at Lake Hamilton, near Hot Springs, Ark., where they visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Packard, now

WEST BEVERLY - EAST BEVERLY

Westchester Social Briefs

The Andrew Seeds of Farmingdale drive just returned from a three-week vacation down Texas way. The family visited with their grandparents, Mrs. Ralph Smith at Norman, Okla. and while their parents went on to visit the William Mikels in Dallas the boys' vacation really began.

Andy, Jr., Dave and Doug spent the time on their uncle's ranch and had all the 'ridin', shootin' three little cowboys could squeeze into the daylight hours.

The Bill Thompkins of Middlebury lane have quite a tale to tell of his trip to the West. The Thompkins took a trip through Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa visiting friends and relatives enroute.

Going across the state of Iowa, about midway and all in a matter of minutes, the family car had a blow-out and flat. Nothing to do but go to the nearest farm house for help and before catching their breath the Thompkins found themselves seated at a delightful lunch and a call put out to the nearest garage. They had a stay of about 8 hours with their new found friends.

After reaching the farm of their relatives Alan gave them quite a time. Give a chance to drive the tractor by himself, he was in no hurry to return home. His ambition is to be at the farm for the fall harvest.
