Lathrup—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Colliau of Avilla and their two girls, Susan and Linda, spent eight days fishing and swimming at Grand Lake, 20 miles north of Alpena.

Going with the Colliaus on their trip were Mr. and Mrs. Louis

Cranbrook Garden Contest Still Open

Cranbrook—There is still time for anyone in the Cranbrook Villages to compete in the flower garden contest sponsored by the Rodney Lockwood Co.

Judging will be done in July, August and September on arrangement, color and continuous nature. Prizes will be awarded to three homes at the end of September.

Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

Nancy Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baldwin of Rambling Road, was christened at St. Bede's August 3. The christening took place on Saturday due to the fact that the godparents had to leave town. The godparents, Mrs. Elmer Fuller and Robert Fuller were from Rock Island, Ill.

Dinner at Vannelli's restaurant with the parents and godparents rounded out the day.

Cranbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starr and 4 month old Chuck of Southgate drive spent a week at a cottage on Lake Charlevoix near Mackinac City. Starr's two brothers, Frank and Roland, and their families, enjoyed the week with them.

Cranbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnhouse of Southgate drive, along with son, Ricky, enjoyed a two week visit with Mrs. Barnhouse's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Krekeier, in St. Louis, Mo.

Cranbrook—A visitor to the Thomas Lawrey family of Westbrook Pkwy. was Mrs. Lawrence's sister, Mrs. Robert Graves of Lakeview, Calif. Two weeks of family parties and outdoor fun were enjoyed by the Graves' children, Kathy 7, Pamela 4 and Cindy 2½.

More recently the Lawreys, and daughter Bonnie Jo, spent several pleasant days at Hubbard Lake.

Cranbrook—A new arrival to the Dale Prentiss, Jr. family of Spring Hill Lane, is Lawrence Michael, who was born July 24 at Harper hospital in Detroit. Lawrence weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces at birth.

An uncle, Reverend Vincent Brennan of C. D., baptized Lawrence at St. Bede's. Godparents were an aunt and uncle, Carolyn Kellraich and John Fellraich.

Rodgers, along with Lisa and Gary, of Spring Arbor. The families also enjoyed a day seeing Mackinac Island.

LATHRUP—Unable to fit their schedule in with the Lathrup Women's Golf League, Mrs. Gerald Spencer, her son Larry and Mrs. Everett Nelson have been practicing on Tuesdays at Glen Oaks Country Club. The threesome plays a lively nine holes before lunch and another after lunch with Larry as low scorer even though it is his first year.

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Franz spent last weekend house hunting in and around Philadelphia. Franz is due to take up his duties as manager of the Philadelphia office of Harbison-Walker Refractories Co. on Sept. 15. He has been with the Company for 32 years. Neighbors and the Lathrup Women's Bowling League will miss Mrs. Franz.

Oakland Hills Social Briefs

Oakland Hills—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Pulte of Balwood recently were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smithberger in South Bend, Ind. While there they enjoyed several barbecues and a large gathering of relatives. Mary Beth and Mike accompanied their parents.

Upon their return, the Pultes spent several relaxing days at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deves on Lake Huron near Port Austin.

Oakland Hills—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ferstle of Fairview Crescent and their children, Bonnie, Wayne, Neil and Mark, recently spent several pleasant days at a cottage at Grand Lake. The Ferstles also stopped off at Rogers City and see Mrs. Ferstle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dullack.

After the Ferstles return, Mr. and Mrs. Dullack spent 10 days here.

Oakland Hills—Miss Marian Janet Pajus of Longrest held an afternoon party, which included a luncheon and games, to celebrate her 13th birthday August 5.

Among the teenagers present were Trudy Putz, Carol Klepper, Margaret Remp, Darlene Robinson and Patricia Harcourt.

Cambridge Village Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kahl of Lexington Pkwy. just returned from a three week trip to Calif where they visited Kahl's aunt and uncle in Garden Grove.

Included in their itinerary were trips to Laguna Beach and Balboa and a special visit to Disneyland for daughters Janet and Kathryn which turned out to be a day when Disneyland recorded the largest number of people in its history.

Several friends accompanied the Kahls—3 cars in all and a total of 18 people. Traveling together and stopping at the same motels made the trip especially enjoyable for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cartier of Shagbark, along with Jeff and Patty, spent a very enjoyable two weeks in Denver and Colorado Springs.

Among the many interesting sights they saw were Pike's Peak Royal Gorge, Seven Falls and the North Pole, a fantasyland for children with a Santa Claus and reindeer, and many other delights for children.

Lathrup Woman's Golf League Ends Season August 26

LATHRUP—The Lathrup Woman's Golf League will finish up the season on August 26 with a morning of fun followed by luncheon in the club house.

Designated as "Monkey Golf Day" members of the league have been invited to decide which club beside a putter they will carry around the course.

Chairman of the league, Mrs. Clarence DeGroot, says the league will finish up its first season with 40 active members.

The most outstanding shot of the season was Mrs. L. J. Camill's 165 yard drive on the eighth hole.

Organize Lathrup Square Dance Club

LATHRUP—Officers of the Lathrup Village Square Dance club met Friday evening at the home of the Gene Perous to make plans for the coming season. With the exception of one month, the Lathrup Village square dancers will meet at Southfield high school in the cafeteria.

Combining business with pleasure, the swimming members of the committee enjoyed a refreshing dip in the Peron pool.

The hall rolled across the green and stopped within an inch of a hole-in-one.
