

Puts Faith In Footwork

Any sensible girl knows that in the things that really matter at school, good feet will take her as far as a good head. And the time to think about feet is now when the paternal charge account is geared for the back-to-school plunge.

The average school girl of '57-'58 according to a recent survey, will own 14 pairs of leather shoes, eight of which she's bought this year. Tell that to papa so that you can then plan with a relaxed conscience. For school life these days is a well-rounded affair and special cases require special shoes as well as dresses.

She'll begin with flats, of course, and she will want several styles in these for the flat has taken on various aspects: casual, tailored and dressy.

With Ivy-league shorts, pants and skirts she'll want loafers styled exactly like the well-dressed college man's with leather soles, monk straps and brass buckles. Real cool numbers will be hand stitched around the moc toe and the toe will turn slightly up.

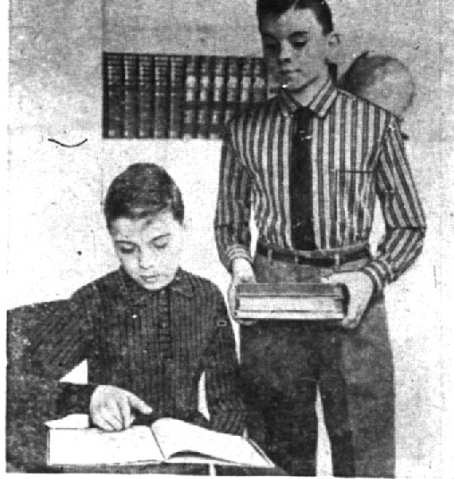

Bulky woollens will take to the two-way brushed suede leather with its mottled two-tone look in new rich autumnal shades as sienna, persimmon and chestnut as well as beige, camel and loden green. Add a pair in grey suede to match your grey flannels.

Suede shoes will often show the tyrolean influence in raw, turned-out seams, fringed tongues, stitching in a contrasting color and other handcraft details.

Soft smooth leather jodhpur and up-to-the-ankle boots, also leather-soled, will display these same features.

Dressy flats will display every trim applied to daytime shoes and some heretofore used only on late-day and evening shoes. We'll see a lot of two-color, two-leather-texture combinations, including smooth leather ones with a spat-like collar in a lighter, suede leather.

Others will have straps, buttons

Good Grooming Aids

Their own grooming accessories make good grooming fun for grade-schoolers.

To encourage all-way neatness for Junior, give him a pocket comb with its own leather case, for school, and initialed military brushes, "like Dad's."

Sister will like—and use—a simple manicure set and her own special bath powder, soap and shampoo.

and buckles, vari-colored underlays and overlays — even drapes and tucks. The girl who owns a pair of red patent-leather flats will get "A" for her footnotes.

Sweater Fashion For School Lads

The back-to-school picture in sweaters will show greater use of man-made fibers, alone or in combination with natural fibers. Shetland, crew-neck and shawl collars are among the more important styling touches. The bulky, rugged look of shaker knits and Scandinavian-type sweaters will find favor among students.

Stripes and other patterned effects will be seen, as will neck, sleeve and waist trims in contrasting colors. Once again the important color would appear to be red.

'Dress Plus' Look Features Sweaters

The influence of the sweater look gains, appear to be suits. Often the is apparent in many of the dresses. There are more patterned cotton knits being used for simple shirt dresses.

Acrylic jerseys take beautifully to tailored styles with bright collar and cuff treatments.

Many of the dresses or blouses and skirts having their own cardigans, appear to be suits. Often the fabric is ribbed or has a tweedy appearance with gray or beige the predominant colors.

There is a definite trend to the "dress plus", perhaps a jacket, a cardigan sweater, even a car coat. A full skirted the print dress has its own water repellent coat in a coordinating solid color.
