Speaking at Unity Center recently, garden expert Alice Wannam Buffett told me that for some time the popular speaker was referring to plowing in another sphere.

Her topic when she spoke at Sunday morning services was: "The Deep Cultivation Necessary for the Development of a Strong Personality."

Fall must be just around the corner when you hear that familiar refrain. Just heard the committee planning the Kirk in the Hills sale is at 9 a.m. for breakfast and a business session.

Toni of them will gather at the Orchard house home of Mrs. William Bevill at 10:15 to discuss the 9 to 8 sale slated for Lakeshore Drive.

"The Kirk woman might really draw crowds by calling it a faire!"

When you end this, 19-ye-old religious editor (that's me) will be heading on the bus at 6:30 to seek for Aug. 15. For two weeks this year's carver's schedule will be dominated with nothing—just relaxing.

If ye older editor doesn't return, you'll know he's stuck like a mackerel.

Lots of things coming up on the busy schedule of Birmingham's United Church Women.

Right now they're preparing a directory for the church women of Birmingham. It will list the dates of all important events sponsored by each group along with the names of officers and other useful information.

They're invited to全天特修女还会有在伯明翰吉恩・路易斯・兰利路的第二个星期三的午餐会，由霍华德・维斯比主持。

They're not going to try to compete with tennis player Donald Ross, who set the first ball up on the October 11 date on the city's tennis court that was officially dedicated.

Now the first edition is done for Sept. 27 at First Presbyterian church. The program is given by "Christ, the Church, and You," and Rev. and Mrs. J. McNeal (she's a state and national church officer) will be program leaders. Rev. McNeal is minister of a Baptist church.
