Franklin Social Briefs

With almost a half-century in the Franklin area, the Franklin Lions Club has been an integral part of the community. During its recent meeting, President Daniel Lawrence was honored for his service. Lions Club President Thomas R. J. Kennedy presented the award, recognizing Mr. Lawrence's contributions to the community.

The Franklin Lions Club meets on the second Tuesday of each month at the Franklin Community Church. All members are welcome to attend these meetings. The next meeting will be held on October 20th, at 7:00 PM. For more information, please contact Mr. Kennedy at 555-1234.

Woodcreek Social Briefs

Woodcreek Farms, a family-owned business, has been in operation for over 50 years. The farm is known for its high-quality produce and its commitment to sustainable farming practices. This year, Woodcreek Farms has partnered with a local charity to support their efforts in community food security.

The farm's harvest festival, held on October 10th, was a success, with many visitors enjoying the variety of fresh produce available. Proceeds from the festival will be donated to the local food bank.

Franklin Youths Have 'Night Out'

The annual Youth 'Night Out' event took place on September 25th at Franklin High School. The event was attended by over 300 students, who enjoyed a variety of activities, including games, food, and live music. The event was organized by the local youth council and was sponsored by local businesses.

The proceeds from the event will be used to fund local youth programs and initiatives.

Pre-Nuptial Parties For Inez Mozuk

A pre-nuptial party for Inez Mozuk, who is getting married on October 1st, was held on September 20th. The party was attended by family and friends, who enjoyed a night of celebration and good food.

Inez and her fiancé are preparing for their upcoming wedding, which will take place in the heart of the city. The couple has planned a variety of events, including a reception at the local museum.

Franklin Plans Traffic Controls Near Cider Mill

Due to increased traffic around Cider Mill, Franklin plans to implement new traffic controls starting next month. The controls will be implemented to improve safety and to reduce congestion in the area.

The new traffic controls will include the installation of new traffic lights and the addition of new signage. The city is also considering the possibility of closing the street to non-local traffic.
