The Lions—How Bright the Horizon?

Parker Predicts Rain
Wilson Sees Blue Skies

By BOB WEHRL
Sports Editor

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41, who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their best.

The Lions—How Bright the Horizon?

Buddy Says Players Too Lazy

Big Lions have new coach in Bill Wilson
Buddy: No one, no thing, no way

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed
attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their
best.

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their
best.

The Lions—How Bright the Horizon?

Buddy Says Players Too Lazy

Big Lions have new coach in Bill Wilson
Buddy: No one, no thing, no way

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed
attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their
best.

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed
attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their
best.

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed
attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their
best.

Buddy Parker has resigned, relinquishing a $30,000-a-year
posting as the “first real all-around football coach” in Ford’s
automotive history. The Lions’ new coach is Bill Wilson, 41,
who has been an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for the past five years.

Wilson is a former pointer who was in charge of the East
Lions’ defense in the 1954 American Football Conference
championship game against the Los Angeles Rams.

Wilson has been an assistant coach under several successful
coaches, including Fielding H. Yost at Michigan, and Ed
Rafferty at the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

On the field, Wilson has been known for his hard-nosed
attitude and his ability to inspire players to perform at their best.