Suburban Investments Voted for New Officers

The Suburban Investments club of Troyton Manor had their monthly meeting Tuesday evening by visiting the Goodbody Company in Royal Oak, where Mr. John E. Martin, a stock consultant, explained to the men procedures of forming such a club and many interesting items connected with the stock market.

Prior to Mr. Martin's talk, the group voted for their officers. Mr. George Whitehead was elected president, Mr. Douglas Watson, vice president, Mr. George Roebuck, secretary, and Mr. Maurice Bquamann, treasurer agent.

This past weekend Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobecke of 133 Wrenwood in Chicago, Ill., are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson with daughter Sara and son Paul.

The younger group along with Janie Gobecke especially enjoyed the freedom and convenience of the backyard pool.

Newcomers to 1744 Graefield road from Pensacola, Fla., and formerly of Chicago, Ill., are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knowles.

Mr. Knowles is a graduate of Purdue university and was affiliated with the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He is now working with the Square "D" Company in Detroit and hopes to find time for his favorite pastimes of fly fishing and woodworking.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith of Derby road with their children Cece, Linn and Kim returned recently from the mid-summer conference of the Michigan Society of Architects at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island.

While their parents attended the many luncheons and meetings, the children took bicycling tours of the island, swam and especially enjoyed the buggy rides.

Mrs. Leland Morgan formerly of Graefield road and now living on Chestnut Hill drive entertained her monthly bridge group this past week.

Those seated at the two tables and sipping the refreshing limeade with sherbet sodas were Mrs. Harold Stanton, Mrs. Norman Evans, Mrs. Joseph Hengemann, Mrs. Donald Larson, Mrs. Jack Stevenson, Mrs. James Burch, and Mrs. Charles Depuydt.

Mrs. Larson won top prize of the evening with Mrs. Hengemann holding second place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hickman of 1722 Graefield road were welcomed as newcomers this month. They hailed from San Francisco, Calif., where Mr. Hickman was a naval architect. He is now affiliated with the W. P. Hickman Company as a roofing contractor.

Mills college in Oakland, Calif., is the alma mater of Mrs. Hickman, whereas Mr. Hickman is a University of Michigan graduate. He was affiliated with the Phi Delta Gamma fraternity.

Since their return to Michigan, Mr. Hickman has enjoyed some weekends of sailing on Orchard Lake.

Another new Graefield family are Mr. and Mrs. Eric Mittelstadt of 734 Graefield court formerly of Grand Blanc, Mich.

stopping off in New Hampshire and Boston.

A family reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson of Brooklawn road. The honor guests for the day were Major and Mrs. E. W. Claxton and children Keith and Kathy who are enroute to Europe on a military assignment.

The sewing group of St. Jane de Chantal's Guild met at the home of Mrs. Maurice Reardon for an evening of working on their project. Present were Mrs. Tracy Taylor, Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. Robert Dyla and Mrs. Leo Clougherty.

August tenth was a day of gaiety at the Roger Cleary home on Witherbee road. In the morning they had a celebration for their son Steve for his fifth birthday.

His little playmates arrived dressed in Pirate hats and swords prepared for their quest for buried treasures. With their hunt completed and booty in hand they returned in time for lunch and birthday cake.

In on the festivities were Tony Hedgecock, David Durkee, Michael Rivard, Chuck Greene, Steve Gahert and Doug Gahert.

The day was not yet completed for the Clearys after quickly changing the decorating motif they open their doors again to greet three year old Susi's friends who had arrived to help celebrate her birthday.

A splash party was the theme of her celebration. Her guest list included Marcia and Beth Case, Shari Simpson, Susie Simpson and Mary Lou Greene.

The Maurice Reardons of Brooklawn court and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Irvin of Witherbee enjoyed cocktails and dinner together in celebration of Mr. Reardon's birthday.

Cottages seem to be at the top of the vacation spots this year. The Richard Knapps and children Gayle and Tommy of Wrenwood road returned recently from two weeks at a cottage on Lake Huron just outside of Cassville, Mich. It will be long remembered by eight year old Tommy who boasts a ten perch catch on one of his fishing outings.

Mrs. Stan Mattson and children Corinne and Christine of the Graefield Terraces flew to Cape Cod for a month where they were joined the latter two weeks by Mr. Mattson. They motored home,
