RANDOM NOTES

1. It is estimated that every acre of land in the United States contains an average of one ton of weed seeds.

2. It will be argued by some that the weed seeds from the desert areas are now in their own yards.

3. Virginia Bluebell (Mertensia) can be divided and moved now for the roots are practically dormant.

4. If you have used 2-4D in your sprayer you will be wise if you do not use it on flowers and ornamentals . . . ever.

5. Here is what is involved when we cannot deliver your 100 lbs. of salt because no one is home and the doors are locked:—

1. Load it on truck—100 lbs.
2. Unload it in warehouse 100 lbs.
3. Load it again next day 100 lbs.
4. Unload it at your house 100 lbs.

Total 400 lbs.

PLEASE HELP OUR ACHING BACKS!

6. As soon as hollyhocks have finished blooming cut them to the ground and burn the stalks. Spray new seedlings with BORDEAUX.

7. When cutting gladiolus spikes leave a reasonable amount of foliage on the plant for developing new corms. Use a sharp knife and make a slanting cut.

8. HERE IS WHERE WE SPREAD IT! . . . YOU COULD DO BETTER BUT NOT MUCH BETTER THAN $11.00 FOR A $21.00 SPREADER THAT HAS BEEN SOME USE —IN FACT QUITE A LOT OF USE. IF YOU HAVE A LITTLE BIT OF MECHANICAL INGENUITY COME AND GET ONE—THERE ARE 4 AT THIS MOMENT (8-8-57, 4:31 P.M.) . . . IF YOU HAVEN'T GOT ANY M.I. YOU BETTER FORGET THE SPREADERS.

9. If your cabbage head begins to crack bend it over so as to break the neck—the root on one side and stop growth.

10. Tie up cauliflower heads by pulling the leaves over the top and fastening with a string, or twine, or cord.

11. Water things slowly to prevent washing and to insure soaking to a depth of several inches. In dry periods one inch of water may be added once a week.

12. BUG-FET-A will getta da slugs if you putta da stuff onaground.

13. Don't plant a $5.00 tree or shrub in a fifty cent hole.

14. If enomynous is covered with white dots they are probably scales and must be sprayed with MALATHION.

15. Next week the inimitable J. R. Marsh will titillate your sense of humor and duty with some irreversible and irresistible good sense and fun.

Breakfast Guests

Youngsters at Roddy Thompson's fourth birthday party were invited to come for the breakfast and spend the day riding the pony, swimming, sliding and taking turns on amusement rides. Roddy is the young cowboy on the pony.

Youngsters at Birthday Party Ride Rodeo Decorated Shetland

By JOYCE WARD

Eighteen little cow-pokes were herded into the Arnold Thompson corral Friday morning for Roddy's fourth birthday round-up.

All the youngsters were served sausage and pancakes from the chuck wagon by trail cook, Mrs. Thompson, at breakfast time.

With the round-up completed, many of the dust bitten trail hands exchanged their Stetsons and boots for swimming shorts and enjoyed the intriguing slide leading to the cooling water in the Thompson's portable pool while others took their turns on some amusement rides.

RODDY'S guest list included his brother Tommy and sister Cami, Scott and Ruddy Hayes, Pam and Randy Miner, Jose and Marcella Barnes, Jimmy and Tommy Torgerson, Jonathan and Camy Neiger, Jimmie and Steward Grayhart, Richard and Martha Straub, and Mark Moore.

MRS. STANLEY J. OLSEN

Barbara Dahlman Wed In Candlelight Rites

LATHRUP VILLAGE—Barbara Eleanor Dahlman and Stanley Joseph Olsen exchanged rings and vows at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in the Covenant Baptist church. Candlelight rites were read by the Rev. Warner Cole.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dahlman of Rainbow drive. Stanley's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Olsen of Berkeley.

HER FLOOR-LENGTH gown of white organza was fashioned with an eyelet embroidered bodice. Her fingertip veil fell from a matching cap and she carried a prayerbook topped with a white orchid, stephanotis and ivy.

Lois Dahlman was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Beverly Slavsky, Janice Klouso, and Barbara Link.

They wore identical ballroom length frocks of mint green organza with darker green cummerbunds matching their picture hats. They carried baskets of white daisies with ivy.

FLOYD RATH was best man. Seating the guests were Frank Moran, Robert Applin, and Ray Gould.

The bride's mother wore pale pink organza with a wrist corsage of white carnations and Stanley's mother chose rose colored lace with a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

After a reception in church parlors the couple left for a two-week honeymoon in Ft. Lauderdale.
