Wall-Flippo United in Marriage In The Garden of Brigade Inn

Wearing a chapel length gown created of white chantilly lace and tulle, Ellen Marie Flippo repeated her vows to James Thomas Wall, III, in the garden of the Laurel Brigade Inn, Leesburg, Va.

MRS. JAMES T. WALL, III

Styled with a sabrina neckline, long sleeves and lace bodice, the gown was complemented by a veil of silk illusion cascading from a cap of lace and pearls. To complete the bridal picture, Ellen carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

THE REV. GEORGE OLIVER of the Leesburg Methodist church performed the single-ring rites in the presence of 350 guests and the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Flippo of Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Wall of Madison avenue, Birmingham.

Mrs. Clyde Vanderhoof, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kitty Clemens, Sandra Patterson, Mrs. Richard Forsee and Barbara Hoffman.

Attendants were gowned alike in white nylon chiffon featuring round necklines and full pleated skirts. They wore lace picture hats trimmed with pink ribbon and carried pink roses tied with white ribbon.

GUESTS WERE Usherred by Harry Lyman Wall, brother of the groom; Roy Monroe Flippo, Jr., brother of the bride; Clyde Allen Vanderhoof and John Souder. Hugh Whitmer was best man. For her son's wedding day, Mrs. Wall selected a dress of blue lace over taffeta, accented by matching accessories. Mrs. Flippo chose an ice blue lace dress over silk with chiffon panel and matching accessories.

AFTER A RECEPTION at the Laurel Brigade Inn, Ellen and James left on a honeymoon to the Pocono mountains. Her going away costume was a navy linen sheath dress with matching accessories. The couple will reside in Naperville, Ill.
