MRS. GILBERT C. OSNOS

Flower Banked Altar In Wedding Background

The living room of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Aaron Paysoner of north Adams road, Birmingham, was transformed into a chapel Sunday. Their daughter, Margaret, became the bride of Gilbert Charles Osnos. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Osnos of Covington drive.

Dr. Morris Adler of Congregation Shaaray Zedek solemnized the double-ring rites at a four o'clock ceremony.

THE ALTAR was banked with yellow and white mums, daisies and trailing vines of string amilax. A yellow and white effect was carried out in the floral decoration throughout the home and terrace. Immediately following the ceremony, the guests were received in the garden. Dinner was served later in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's gown was fashioned of pearl white silk organdy featuring a portrait neckline and cap sleeves. A double skirt of the silk organdy fell over taffeta and a double eroline.

HER DOUBLE-TIERED veil of Elizabethan illusion fell from a shell of rosettes and lace, re-embroidered with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of cascading lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Margaret was attended by her sister, Betty, as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Hartman of Birmingham and Mrs. Robert Rose of Indiana.

Attendants were gowned alike in yellow silk organza over taffeta. A scoop drape formed the neckline and dropped into a panel. Yellow horseshair hats with open centers marked by a circlet of flowers; matching gloves and accessories completed the picture. The girls carried a bouquet of white daisies.

THE GROOM asked his cousin, Jerome Yudkoff, to serve as best man. Seating the guests were Mesgrs. Herbert Aronson of Huntington Woods, Stanley Kaplan of Birmingham, Ruthven Simons of Royal Oak and Theodore Hummel of Ohio.

Mrs. Paysoner chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of beige chantilly lace featuring a boat neckline and bracelet sleeves. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of cyripediums.

Mrs. Osnos wore a waltz length gown of pink silk taffeta styled with short sleeves and scoop neckline. She chose matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING the reception, the couple left for their honeymoon to Bermuda. The bride changed into a gray silk suit with black accessories and a corsage of white lilies. Upon returning, the newlyweds will reside in Spotsfield.
