

Van Deusens Motoring West For Honeymoon

Wearing a wedding gown of peau de soie, Ann Marie Groves walked down the aisle of the First Methodist church Saturday evening to become the bride of Bruce Dudley Van Deusen.

Styled with an oval neckline trimmed in alencon lace flowers and fitted waistline falling into alencon lace flowers at hips and bouffant skirt, the gown was complemented by a veil of illusion cascading from a cap of seed pearls. To complete the bridal picture, Ann carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

DR. ARNOLD F. RUNKEL performed the single-ring rites witnessed by 350 guests and the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie E. Groves of Westchester Way, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Van Deusen of Ohio.

Maid of honor, Mary Ellen Groves, sister of the bride, carried a bouquet of gladiolus with her crystalline ballerina length gown of blue, fashioned with a blue sash and bow.

Bridesmaids were Bruce J. McArthur of Flint and Mrs. David J. Burkhardt of Birmingham. They were identical to the matron of honor.

CHARLES REISS of Olympia, Wash., stood as best man. Ushers were James Stauffacher, James Cheaney, Adelbert Bramley and William McManis.

Mrs. Groves chose a pink sheath dress with matching accessories and the groom's mother selected a pink silk shantung dress with a bolero jacket and matching accessories. Both mothers had pink roses.

THE NEW MRS. VAN DEUSEN changed to a blue linen suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet for her honeymoon out west. Upon returning, the young couple will reside in Highland Park.

MRS. BRUCE VAN DEUSEN

Mr. and Mrs. Berry To Live in Ann Arbor

Kathryn Margaret Kirkland and Dean Frank Berry pledged their nuptial vows Saturday in a 4:30 o'clock ceremony at the Buena Vista Baptist church in Owensboro, Ky. The Rev. J. D. Herndon solemnized the double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clayton Kirkland of Owensboro, Ky. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Berry of Madison avenue, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a gown fashioned of white chantilly lace over taffeta with a chapel train. A lace cap secured her short veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of mums and stephanotis completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. David J. Warren, Jr., of New Jersey was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Neubauer and Leann Ellis of Kentucky and Kathleen Berry of Birmingham. Junior bridesmaid was Marjorie Kirkland of Kentucky. The attendants were gowned alike in white chiffon over four shades of blue taffeta with flower-embroidered headbands. The junior bridesmaid wore white chiffon over white taffeta. Their flowers were made up of white mums and white carnations.

RICHARD MOTT of Indiana stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Stumbo of Wisconsin, Kenneth MacQueen, Craig Ackerman, Arthur Fairbanks and Eugene Hesse, all of Birmingham, and Don Markin of Ohio.

Immediately following the reception in the church parlor, the newlyweds left for their honeymoon to the south. The new Mrs. Berry chose a black sheath with white accessories for traveling. The Dean F. Berrys will reside in Ann Arbor.

MRS. DEAN F. BERRY

Presbyterian Church Is Scene of Wedding

Marcia Elaine Close and Curt Gunther Sheilman pledged their nuptial vows Saturday in a 2:30 o'clock ceremony at the First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Robert Gibson solemnized the double-ring rites in the presence of 75 guests.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Close of Kennesaw, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sheilman of Berlin, Germany.

Marcia chose a floor-length gown fashioned of Swiss embroidered organdy with a high neckline and long sleeves with matching em-broiderie. A lace crown secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. White roses, stephanotis and lilies were arranged for her bouquet.

Erna McAninen of Indiana was the maid of honor. She wore a street-length gown of yellow taffeta covered with Swiss organdy, and a white picture hat with streamers of yellow velvet ribbon.

BRIDESMAID was Beverly Close, sister of the bride. Her gown was identical to the maid of honor's. David Smith of Ann Arbor stood as best man and Henry Onderdunk served as usher. Mrs. Close selected a light blue chiffon dress for her daughter's wedding.

A reception at the Forest Lake Country club was immediately after the ceremony.

GUESTS ATTENDING were

Mrs. Nina B. Unthank, great grandmother of the bride, and grandparents, the Leroy Closes and Mr. W. H. Willenar, all of Indiana.

The new Mrs. Sheilman changed to a brown sheath with white accessories for her honeymoon to Indiana. Upon return, the couple will reside in Clawson.

Have You Met . . .

The Robert W. Hagues and their daughter, Vicki of Manor road, Bloomfield township? They moved from Oak Park June 28. Robert is employed by Ernst & Ernst as a Certified Public Accountant. Mr. and Mrs. Hague are graduates of Wayne State university.

Dated!
SUPER SIZE SUPER CLEAR SUPER BRIGHT
Subersnap PRINTS
 Take Films to Camera Counters Serviced by
HITE PHOTO, INC.

SANDLER OF BOSTON'S NEW TAPERED-TOE SWEATER MOC... with the elasticized topline that moulds to your foot. The all-important slender look... bringing a classic favorite right up to this very minute.
 Black or Caramello. $8.95

fashions for the smart girl from our College Book

Dealey Shops