

MRS. B. JEFFERY CORNISH

Barbara Semann Wed To MSU Student

Double ring rites at 10 a.m. Saturday in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs united in marriage Barbara Ann Semann and B. Jeffrey Cornish. The Rev. Lucian A. Herbert read the rites before 150 wedding guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Semann of Southfield road and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cornish, all of Birmingham.

BARBARA wore an embroidered organly gown fashioned with a scalloped sabbina neckline and short scalloped sleeves. The ballerina length skirt was styled with four tiers of scalloped embroidered organly. A crown of seed pearls and sequins held in place her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a saccade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Both McDonough was her only attendant in a frock of pink embroidered organly with three-quarter-length puffed sleeves. She wore a small pink hat adorned with seed pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of pink daisies.

JACK MAISON was best man. Assisting as ushers were John Cornish, brother of the groom, and Fred Howling.

For her daughter's wedding and reception at Red Run Country club, Mrs. Semann wore a pink pou de sole street length dress with an oval neckline and princess style skirt with a large bow accenting the waistline. Her flowers were pink rosebuds. Jeff's mother wore an olive-green sheath with a flare back skirt to which she pinned yellow roses.

After a wedding trip to Northern Michigan the couple will re-
