

MRS. ALEXANDER E. LOFQUIST

Italian Silk Worn For Friday Marriage

Dorothy Jean Johnson wore a waitz-length gown of imported Italian silk for her marriage to Alexander Eric Lofquist, Jr., at 7:30 p.m., Friday, in the First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak. The Rev. T. E. Kirkman read the doubling rites before 200 wedding guests. He was assisted by Dr. R. G. Riemann.

Delicate lace framing the scoop neckline was trimmed with tiny seed pearls and iridescent. Full length sleeves came to points over the wrists. Her imported illusion veil fell from a dainty Swedish crown of white forget-me-nots and pearls. A white orchid centered her cascade of stephanotis.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Johnson of L'Anse-au-Loup, Mich., and the Alexander E. Lofquists of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills.

ELINOR SHERIDAN was her only attendant in a gown of pale blue covered with white imported lace with which she wore a picture hat. She carried a cascade of blue tinted full mums.

E. D. Trueman was best man. Seating the guests were James L. Johnson, Kenneth Lane, Russell Sandri and Russell Chappel.

THE BRIDEN'S mother wore a Dior blue dress with matching accessories and rose colored rubrum lilies and her grandmother wore navy crepe with baby pink roses. Mrs. Lofquist wore a rose-colored lace dress with rose lilies. After a reception in the church parlors the couple left for Irish Hills and Upper Michigan. Upon return from their honeymoon, they will reside at 1122 East Eleven Mile, Royal Oak.

William Borchards. Their stops included Leamington, Ont., Canada, Niagara Falls and Cleveland, Ohio. While in Cleveland they visited the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hair and Mrs. Clarence Reichard.

The Richard Dears and their year-old daughter, Denise, moved into their new especially equipped home on Ivy Lane. Mr. Dear is a disabled veteran and has moved here from Chicago, Ill. Their interests include gardening and landscaping. Sewing is a hobby of Mrs. Dear.

Newcomers to North Adams road are Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Mathews of Birmingham. Mrs. Mathews was formerly of Montreal, Canada, until their recent marriage. Mr. Mathews is retired and has discovered gardening and keeping up their five acres takes a good deal of time. They both are interested in music and attend concerts often.

Britain plans to triple production of commercial nuclear energy by 1965. The ambitious program will cost an estimated $2,572,000,000.

They are expected back in the states about September 15. Debbie took her camera along to capture some of the beauty of the countries and its people.

A "Bon Voyage" party was given Debbie by her friend and school chum, Barbara Charters with the help of Barbara's mother, Mrs. James Charters of Bretby drive in the afternoon of Aug. 7.

After the "going away" gifts were opened they gathered around the party table for refreshments. Centered on the party table was a beautifully decorated cake topped with an airplane and the words spelling out "Bon Voyage Debbie." After the group of 10 girls, all of Eastover school, were escorted by Mrs. Charters to the downtown movie, "Around the World in 80 Days."

Those enjoying the afternoon were Debbie Clark, Julie Coe, Gloria Martens, Pam Davison, Nancy Kezlarian, and a sister of Mrs. DeWitts, Christin Cookson, who has been visiting here from Jackson, Mich.

Mrs. John Kinsey of Hyland drive received a most interesting package the other day. Inside the package was a Sukiyaki dinner set that was sent to them by a Japanese couple, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Ikeda of Tokyo, Japan. The couple were visiting in this country last April. While they were guests of the Kinseys they cooked a Japanese dinner served Japanese style complete with milk kimono.

Mrs. Kinsey found the dinner set most unusual as everything is in sets of five. The Japanese women very rarely attended dinner parties with their husbands before the war.

Many bowls are used at the dinner which included rice, vegetable and meat bowls. There were also many large serving bowls. She also unpacked 3 1/2 dozen chopsticks. A Japanese tea service completed the interesting set.

The Ernest Gules of Butternut Hill entertained a group of twenty two on Saturday, August 10. The group have been getting together in the different seasons for the past seven years.

They met at the Maplelane Golf club and played nine holes that took them 3 1/2 hours. The game was played a little differently than most know it. When each player approached the green he replaced

North Adams Elizabeth Yates MI 6-1682 Debbie DeWitt Tours Scandinavian Countries

Debbie DeWitt, 10-year-old daughter of the David DeWitts of Tutbury road, Charnwood, was an excited little girl as she boarded the plane at Willow Run before dawn on Sunday morning, August 11, with her uncle, Jerry DeWitt of Grand Forks, North Dakota, for a five weeks tour of the Scandinavian countries.

Upon their arrival in New York they boarded another plane of the Icelandic Air Lines that would make its first stop in Oslo, Norway. After visiting Norway, they intend to see Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

Jerry DeWitt is a history professor at the University of North Dakota and is making a study of Holland for his doctor's degree. He invited Debbie to accompany him on this most educational trip some time ago.

They are expected back in the states about September 15. Debbie took her camera along to capture some of the beauty of the countries and its people.
