South Berkshires Social Briefs

THE MELVIN GROVES home on Southshore drove the week Sunday of a double birthday celebration for Melvin's sister, Mrs. George Purdy of Cranford, N. J. and his brother-in-law Marvin Member of Farmington.

Twenty guests gathered for the picnic-barbecue and spent the afternoon visiting, playing horseshoes and baseball, while the children were playing games.

A pink and yellow decorated birthday cake was inserted with a number of honored guests.

DR. AND MRS. MAURICE J. WEINER were hosts to 24 guests Sunday at an afternoon splash party in the pool at their Lahser road home, followed by cocktails and an evening buffet supper. Conversation and bridge completed the evening's entertainment.

KENNETH JOHNSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Lenox drive, celebrated his twelfth birthday Wednesday with a lawn picnic and barbecue.

Baseball, lawn party games preceded the cake and ice cream treat enjoyed by 14 guests.

MR. AND MRS. CLIFFORD WRIGHT and sons, Alan and Larry, of Lenox drive returned recently from a trip in the northern Peninsula.

The family drove to Mackinac and ferried across to St. Ignace. From there they drove north to Saunt Ste. Marie, and went through the Soo Locks up the St. Mary's river.

On the return trip the family stopped at Tahquamenon Falls and Mackinac Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright last week again traveled to Mackinac Island where they attended the four-day annual summer conference of the American Institute of Architects.

MR. AND MRS. MILFORD PINKERTON of Corvett drive were hosts Sunday at an outdoor picnic-barbecue for 25 employees and families of their downtown Jefferson market.

During the afternoon the guests played tag football and basketball. After dark the group gathered in the family room for play skill games, followed by late refreshments.

PLENTY OF outdoor living and "roughing it" is in store for Steve and Dick Weiner of Lahser road and six of their friends who met last week for a two-week camping and fishing junket.

First stop was Grayling, followed by a canoe trip to Min Dam and surrounding area. The return trip is routed via Osceola.

The boys plan to cook all their meals — anticipating a few good fish fries — if fish cooperate.

Also in the group are Jerry Fracost, Stan Madison, Jim Westbury, Tom Connelly, Benny Gorman, and Harry Clynhishun.

LADIES INTERESTED in bowling Thursday afternoons in a house league at Star Lanes, Northwestern near 12 Mile road, are asked to contact Mrs. Melvin Groves, or Mrs. Marvin Cline.

Fox Tribe Plans Cookout Powwow

The Fox tribe of the Indian guides met at the teepee of Flying Hawk and Little Flying Hawk (Len and Jeff Nelson) for a council meeting. Plans were made for a cookout to be held in 2 weeks at the teepee of Little White Rock (Kenny Kittle).

The present project of the tribe is the Indian war bonnets each little brave is making to complete their Indian costumes worn at meetings. Each father and son has completed a war drum used to call the council meetings together. Following the evening's game Flying Hawk served sodas and cookies.
