Suburban Scene

by Fran Maier
Society Editor

A Week for the Girls

Melinda Booth Welth To Jon Henrikson
Terrace Reception at Thornlea

Melinda Booth was an original Miranda girl, re-arranging her Irish ancestry in the Elizabethan times, for her marriage to Jon Henrikson. The scene was set in a cozy room, lightly furnished with oak furniture and lovely window seats. The colors were soft and the atmosphere was warm.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—The home of Mrs. Elinor R. Chess, 1227 Calverton Ave., is the scene of a Terrace Rehearsal Dinner this Thursday evening. Mrs. Chess and Mrs. H. R. Stone are the co-chairmen. The decoration of the terrace has been planned by Miss Mabel R. Stone and Miss Helen Stone.

A Rainy Day was held at the home of Mrs. Elinor R. Chess and Mrs. H. R. Stone.

Ranch Party—Anyone?

Wear your western, cowboy, and beach attire, but come dressed for a real "Ranch" party in the request of the committee for the Saturday night dance at Birchwood on the Rock.

To Welcome New Teachers

The last of the August moon will adorn the new season of activities for the Women's association of the Michigan Women's College, when they open a Hunter party at Willow Hall playhouse featuring "The Harvest of the Autumn Moon." Mrs. March and young friends of the Birchwood who are new Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg, will speak on "The What's in It?" of the month. Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg, will speak on "The What's in It?" of the new season of activities for the Women's association of the Michigan Women's College, when they open a Hunter party at Willow Hall playhouse featuring "The Harvest of the Autumn Moon." Mrs. March and young friends of the Birchwood who are new Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg, will speak on "The What's in It?" of the month.

Notice to Welcome New Teachers

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Lomax, new president, will greet the guests and Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg, will speak on "The What's in It?" of the month.

Surprise Housewarming

Before they left for a vacation in Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ferrie were surprised at a housewarming party at the home of Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg. The party was held in their honor at the home of Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ferrie, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Berg, and several neighbors and friends. The evening was filled with laughter and conversation as the guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hosts.

On the terrace at Birchwood, Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg were entertained by a group of friends who had gathered to celebrate the occasion. The party was held in their honor at the home of Mrs. and Mr. H. W. Berg. The evening was filled with laughter and conversation as the guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hosts.

Costumes Depict Song Titles for Six Holes of Crazy Golf

Drenched Players’ Spirits Undampened

by Fran Maier

There were more handshakes than the girls anticipated for the Day of Forest Lake Country Club's five-hole golf competition.

The day's events started with a nine-hole round of golf followed by a nine-hole round of miniature golf. The miniature golf course was decorated with flags and balloons, creating a festive atmosphere.

The golfers were dressed in waterproof clothing, including rain coats, rubber boots, and umbrellas. Despite the wet weather, the players were in high spirits, laughing and cheering each other on.

"Goofus"

The day concluded at Forest Lake Country Club in a round of singing. Mrs. and Mr. H. C. Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper joined in the singing of "Goofus," a song that was enjoyed by all.

"Come On My House"

Voices echoing "Don't touch" and "you can't have my house" filled the air as Mrs. and Mr. H. C. Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper joined in the singing of "Goofus," a song that was enjoyed by all.

Whot Did Down Dere?

Voices echoed "Don't touch" and "you can't have my house" filled the air as Mrs. and Mr. H. C. Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper joined in the singing of "Goofus," a song that was enjoyed by all.