Safe Robbery
In Bloomfield
Nets $319
BLOOMFIELD—A safe job at Bloomfield, recently on White Street, netted $319 for the thieves. The men, according to police, were not caught, but the thieves were not given any chance to boast of their attempts. The men were seen entering the building, and as the doors were locked, they were forced to leave the place.

Lathrup Treasurers' Race by $322 LATHRUP—the city is $322 richer than it was on Monday morning, when the budget was voted. The city received $120,000 in tax for the year on Monday morning, but on Wednesday morning, after the budget was voted, the amount increased by $322. This is the first time in the city's history that the budget has been approved.

State Board Holds Up Lathrup

LATHRUP—Residents here were worried about Dutch elm disease and wondered what they could do to save their trees.

Robert W. Gilmore, two committees in Michigan, said they could expect, if taken in time, to save their trees for another three to four years. The city of Lathrup has already begun to survey the trees, and a plan has been made to prevent the disease from spreading.

LATHRUP—The city has been asked to buy additional water capacity for the community. The request was made by residents who are concerned about the water supply.
