

Mary Ann Milbrand Married in Florida

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—Church by the Sea in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., was the scene Saturday evening of the wedding of Mary Ann Milbrand and Clarence E. Hendrickson II. Two hundred guests attended the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Milbrand of west Long lake and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hendrickson of Sandusky, Ohio.

THE BRIDE selected a gown fashioned of white peau de soie featuring a pearl beaded alencon lace bodice, sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. A headpiece of pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. White orchids, Stephanotis and a white prayer book completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. William Mulcahy, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of light blue chiffon with matching accessories complementing the gown.

Mrs. Marta Carolin wore a yellow chiffon gown with matching accessories for her duties as bridesmaid.

The bride's three year old niece and nephew, Mary Jane and Billy Mulcahy were ring bearer and flower girl. Mary Jane wore a white swiss organza dress and Billy a palm beach suit.

LIONEL SEARLE served as best man. Ushers were David Milbrand, brother of the bride, William Mulcahy, bride's brother-in-law, William Little and John W. Johnson.

Mrs. Milbrand wore a gown of beige lace with matching accessories. The groom's mother selected a gown of blue lace with matching accessories. Both had orchids. The new Mrs. Hendrickson changed to a blue wool two-piece for her honeymoon to Nassau. The young couple will reside in Birmingham.
