

At Garden Party Workshop

Members of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association attended the fifth annual garden party workshop at Michigan State University Wednesday. Mrs. James Longwell, Mrs. Charles Davison, Mrs. Paul Grant and Mrs. Marvin Katke, all of the Birmingham branch, rest between sessions at the one-day event. The table arrangement, consisting of red geranium nosegays with a white coral vase and background, was done by members of the local branch. (M.S.U. Photo)

Complete Training At Culver Schools

Eight Birmingham youths and three Bloomfield Hills boys were among the 1500 youths who completed eight weeks summer training here at the Culver summer schools last week.

On August 24 certificates of graduation were presented to 237 graduates. Among those receiving certificates were Lt. (jg) William S. Bushnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Bushnell, 438 Larchlea; Thomas F. Chope, son of Joseph E. Chope, 1981 Crosswick, both of Birmingham; and Ens. Cyrus W. Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn, Martell drive, Bloomfield Hills.

All three achieved outstanding records. Bushnell has been a member of the crack naval school band for the past three years; Midshipman Chope, company posture officer of Company VII of the naval school battalion.

Also attending the naval school were Peter K. Thingstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Thingstad, 311 Williamsbury, Birmingham, who completed his first year at Culver where he was a member of the company regimental track team.

Donald E. Dawson, son of Mrs. H. M. Dawson, 31975 Lahser, Birmingham, completed his second year as a member of the Culver Summer Cavalry camp.

Attending the Culver Summer Woodcraft camp were Marcus M. Day, son of Mr. M. Day, Jr., 6077 Gilbert Lake road; David H. Koether, son of Bernard A. Koether, 3485 Brudway; Jerry E. Purdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Purdy, 215 Giengary; and Fred W. Wiesters, son of Dr. Fred K. Wiesters, 260 Manor, all of Birmingham; and William B. Bachman, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bachman, Jr., 715 Oakleigh; and Thomas K. McKenney, son of Paul M. McKenney, of Dunston road, both of Bloomfield Hills.

Woodcrafters Day, Bachman, and McKenney were members of the Cub division in the Woodcraft camp for boys, 12. Woodcrafters Koether was a member of the Beaver division for older boys, 10-14, as was Purdy and Wiesters.

People's Column Leave Pets Home Children Warned

To the Editor: Mrs. Karl R. Koether, secretary of the Birmingham Humane society, wishes to inform the parents of children who will be starting school Sept. 3 to be sure their pets are safely at home and not following them to school, as they will land in the dog pound.

If your dog is lost contact the Birmingham Humane society, MI 4-2529 or MI 4-6595, which will be glad to assist you in locating it.

Sincerely,
Birmingham Humane Society
MRS. K. R. K.

8 Area Students Enrolled At Purdue

Eight Birmingham area students have enrolled at Purdue university under the advance registration program for new students which was in operation from June 12 to July 29.

They include Mary Ellen Bogan, 585 Saffield and Judith Ann Walker, 1042 Partian, both freshmen in science; Barclay P. Gano, 355 Linden, Dearl D. Keener, 1196 Holland and Bruce P. Robert, 15906 West 14 Mile, all freshmen in engineering; and Edith May Trzosa, 4747 Walnut Lake road, freshman in home economics, all of Birmingham.

Also registered are Jacqueline Kay Brozo, Cabot Place, Bloomfield Hills, sophomore and Martha Mary Hill, 32401 Romer, Franklin, freshman, both home economics majors.

Birmingham CAP To Show Equipment At State Fair

When the Michigan State fair opens Friday, the Birmingham squadron, Civil Air Patrol, will be manning a display portraying CAP activities.

The squadron's Public Information Officer Ralph Bessie said the display would be near the mall. It will contain photographs plus the local squadron's aircraft, communications and other equipment. Local cadets at the display will be assisted by members of other squadrons.
