

Heirloom Veil of Brussels Lace Accents Mary Queen of Scots Cap

An heirloom veil of Brussels lace fitted into a Mary Queen of Scots cap was worn by Louise Markle Sherriff for her marriage to Thomas Hyde Alden Saturday. The Rev. W. E. Snoxell read the doubling rites at 3:30 p.m. in St. James Episcopal church.

Former residents of Birmingham, the bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George M. Sherriff of Farmington. The Philip M. Aldens of Pennsylvania are parents of the groom.

GIVEN in marriage by her father the bride was gowned in white organdy over white silk tulle. Tiers of eyellet embroidered organdy fashioned the full length skirt which draped into a slight bustle back. She carried a cascade of blisses of the valley cymbidium orchids and lily.

All attendants wore white organdy over mint green tulle with tulle bodices and mint green cummerbunds. Their headbands were of daistes and ivy and they carried semi-colonial bouquets of yellow and white daisies and lily.

ALICE MOHLER was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Susanne Borber, Mary Jane Ballard, Linda Hullinger and Mrs. Daniel S. Griffin of Long Island, N. Y., sister of the groom.

Philip M. Alden, Jr., was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Richard R. Yarnall, Michael Lamm, Dallas S. Griffin, and Jerome Goodman.

MRS. SHERRIFF wore a re-embroidered alenon lace sheath in pale pink with a small pink chiffon hat trimmed with matching feathers. Her flowers were pink and white cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a shirtwaist style dress of embroidered beige silk organdy over matching tulle. Her small hat of orchid hued petals contrasted with her lavender cymbidium orchids.

After a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents the newlyweds left for a three-week honeymoon to the New England States.

They plan to make their home in Cambridge where Tom is studying metallurgy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Were Instructors At Eastern Camp

Ten young men from Birmingham have spent the past nine weeks at Camp Idlewild, Lakeport, N. H., as instructors.

Camp instructors were: James Cardell of Suffield, a former Birmingham high school swimmer, now attending U. of M., who instructed swimming; Larry Turner of Chesterfield, an Oakland stable graduate, has been a member of the camp's riding staff. He is a University of Virginia junior.

JON DeHAAN of Golfview, taught archery, and Don Thalacker of Lowell court, Bloomfield Hills, divided his time between junior handcraft, music and shows.

Mike Weston of Kenosaw, was tennis instructor and wound up his final week with a tournament. Kent Carrell of Suffield, taught canoeing and Steve Pew of Suffield, was a woodcrafts instructor.

Bare Gano of Linden was the camp's rifle instructor and Dick Boyd of S. Glenhurst helped with golfing lessons, while Harry Allick of Kenosaw conducted water skiing and the camp's water ski show.
