You're probably worth lots more than you think

What will happen to it?

Figure it out for yourself-the total value of your life insurance, home, car, furniture, bank account, securities, real estate, and other assets. This is your estate.

What will happen to it?—that's the big question.

Real protection for your family must be based on sound estate planning-the coordination of all of its elements.

You, your lawyer, life insurance and accounting advisors will find our long experience of real benefit in helping you accomplish this goal.

A telephone call to our Estate Planning Service (WO 2-5670) will arrange an exploratory meeting-without obligation, of course.
