

Grandchildren, Grandparents In Limelight

MEADOW LAKE—Grandchildren and their dearest grandparents have been in the limelight in the Meadow Lake area this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm of Valley Spring drive had as their guests their daughter, Mrs. Donald A. Walls, and her two children, Barbara Ann and Dominic, of Marysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPlant of Meadow Lake road entertained their two grandchildren, Colleen and Sandra Fairbanks of Detroit.

FOR THE ENJOYMENT of the visitors, a special party was given Saturday by Mrs. H. J. Copeland at her home on Crestway drive.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Herrick and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm, accompanied by their children and grandchildren. Mrs. Copeland's sons, Bob, and Jack, with his small dog, were in the fun and the dinner that followed.

Farms Family Moves to Ohio

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Mr. and Mrs. John Byers, Brown, with their children, Jerry, Michael and Linda Jo, left Tuesday to make their home in Genoa, Ohio.

Brown has been made manager of club service for the National Management association of Dayton.

Numerous farewell parties held at the Browns' home, 1500 East 12th St., Dr. Norman Dahn of Detroit has purchased the Brown home.

Byers Family Back From Eastern Trip

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Mr. and Mrs. John Byers, Brown, left early in August on a motor trip, returned to their E. Dartmouth home Saturday.

At Upper Montclair, N. J., they attended a family wedding. They spent some time with their family, who both live near Sharon, Pa., and concluded their vacation with a visit with old friends at Oberlin Beach at Huron, Ohio.

Walnut Lake Estates Holds Special Meeting

WALNUT LAKE—A special general meeting of Walnut Lake Estates, Inc., was held Aug. 19 at West Bloomfield township hall.

Mrs. Jack Bek, secretary, read the deed and trustee agreement. Raymond Regan, attorney for the association, explained the provisions of this contract.

WALNUT LAKE Estates, Inc., now will hold title to the beach and park property, including the three adjoining lots, and will assume the duty of trustee for the entire subdivision.

The license for the use of the land granted to association also was read. Provisions in the license allows the association to use the island for a bathing beach and park area. The right to construct a bridge and boat dock are also included.

Mrs. Harry Bosard, chairman of by-laws committee, presented the changes in the by-laws as approved by the board.

Limit in Braes

BRAES—At the Aug. 20 meeting of the board of directors of the Braes of Bloomfield, funds were appropriated for the erection of 25 mile-per-hour speed limit signs in the subdivision.

The location and number of signs was determined by a joint survey of the Oakland County Road commission and the state highway police control.

ACCESSIBLE SPEED on the winding roads of the subdivision made this action necessary.

Entertain Son, Daughter-in-Law

WALNUT LAKE—Guests at the Stewart Schultz home on Walnut Lake road were the Schultz son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Ralston Schultz of Baltimore, Md.

Lt. Schultz is in the aeronautical reserve and development section at the Oakland County Road commission and the state highway police control.
