

Three Accidents Thursday Keep Police Hustling

BLOOMFIELD.—Three accidents kept township police and the sheriff's office busy late last Thursday afternoon on the west side of the township.

The sheriff's department arrested James H. Bowen, 1049 Durant, Pontiac, about 6 p.m. Thursday south of Long Lake road on Franklin road.

He was jailed for drunken driving after he backed into a car driven by Henry Mazur, Jr., 1983 Inkster road, Livonia, while both were stopped waiting for traffic to clear on Long Lake road.

Bowen fled, then hitting a tree but continuing south on Franklin until caught. The grille and bumper were smashed on Mazur's car.

TWO PERSONS were injured in a collision at 6:15 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of Maple and Telegraph roads.

Dale L. Friendstah, 8791 Almont road, Almont, said he did not see Rosalie Sherman, 3818 W. Hart, Auburn Heights, making a left turn from Telegraph until too late to avoid hitting her.

Drivers were treated for lacerations at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac.

A car driven by Ronald W. Flegel, 2404 Dalton, Ypsilanti, rolled over three times in an accident about 4 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of Maple and Franklin roads.

CURTIS E. ALLISON, 4821 Roseview drive, Clarkston, going south on Franklin, pulled onto Maple without seeing Flegel approaching until too late to avoid hitting him.

Flegel was released from Beaumont hospital, Royal, after being treated for back injuries.

A Pontiac man, driving a stolen car without a driver's license, was charged with auto theft.

Parker had taken an automobile belonging to Cecil Davis, 3330 Pine Lake road, with him to the 1949 Dodge belonging to Fred Cook, 1906 N. Hammond Lake.
