Planners Reveal Goals for B'ham

Birmingham's continuance as a desirable residential community, comprised primarily of single family homes, is the hope of city planners, according to a statement of their basic goals for the city. The statement will be presented in the city commission with the proposed new zoning ordinance.

Hub Cap Plan Creates Interest In Other Cities

Birmingham's incorporation of large areas create interest in the city's proximity to other Michigan cities, such as Detroit and Dearborn. This week, the city's growing annexation plans were brought to the attention of the city commission, and a vote was taken on whether or not to approve the plan.

SUIT FILED AGAINST CITY ON ZONING

A bill of complaint was filed last week against Birmingham officials in Oakland county circuit court, charging that they refused to permit construction of a four-story apartment dwelling here. The complaint was filed by a local attorney and is expected to be heard in the court.

Cat Burglar" Jailed Here

Here

Stairwell Falls Him In House

By J U D G E C A N D I L L

 López became aware of the alleged theft and followed the man, who eventually surrendered to police. The burglar was taken to jail, where he remains pending further investigation.

LOOKED-SAFETY TALL

Captor of B'ham Cat Burglar Was "Too Mad to Be Scared"

B'ham Area Schools To Open Next Week

Schools will be dedicated to Birmingham Public Schools on Tuesday morning, with all elementary students present. The dedication, which includes a parade and a speech by the mayor, will be held at the Central High School.

Bahn's Night School

Bahn's Night School, located at 538 Emaple Street, will open its doors on Monday night. The school offers classes in sewing, cooking, and other subjects.

Gray Lady Training

Gray Lady Training, located at 400 W Maple Street, will begin its fall semester on Monday morning. The school offers classes in cooking and sewing.

The Eccentric's work week next week will be one day short because of Labor Day. All News and Advertising Deadlines must be moved accordingly.

City 'Grew Up' 25 Years Ago

By LES LINE

It was through the door of the recently-reopened Star Office that the burglar got in. The burglar forced open the door and then made his way through the building, searched the files, and eventually left with several items.

The burglar then entered the building and began to search for the files. He eventually found the desired items and left the building.

The DA's Office was on the scene within minutes. The burglar got in all the files and ran, but was quickly apprehended.

The burglar was taken to jail, where he remains awaiting further investigation.

High Life

BY TOM MANHARD

The New City

This is how Maple street appeared before the change from a village to a city in 1932, when Birmingham annexed a short time before Birmingham annexed about 35 years ago.

The city of Birmingham will be 35 years old next month, when the city council votes to approve annexation.

The Eccentric is a weekly newspaper that covers the city of Birmingham, Michigan. It is published on a weekly basis and is available in print and online. The newspaper is known for its in-depth coverage of local news and events, as well as its strong focus on community engagement.