Tools of Trade

Birmingham Detective Lt. Melvin Holmquist displays items taken from the person and car of Ernest Morris, cut through with a saw Thursday in an unsuccessful school robbery attempt. Detective Holmquist is holding the mask, fashioned from a pair of woman's naps with two eyes cut out, and a straight razor used to cut the very ends of the mask, used to cover the man's hands. The mask was found in the car.

Find No Objection To Sale of Alcohol

Sale of legally obtained beer, wines and spirits at a wholesaler's like the Superette in Southfield would not be objectionable if the Birmingham city council, acting on a recommendation of a 1953 committee, approved a referendum following a petition circulated this week, according to business manager Max Montgomery of the committee.

End of Second-Story Man

Ernest Morris, 40-year-old Detroit, a notorious cut-burglar, has been arrested in an emergency ward at St. Joseph Mercy hospital by police. He is believed to have extensively been active in the local area.

Burglar

Tourists are told to be on guard as the unobserved 2nd. Ward put out the word that a burglar has been apprehended.

POW

Moving & Storage Co.
2235 Cole
Phone MI 4-6612

No. 1 specialist in local moving!

Scotch mischief!

Kiltie & Gams

American Flag Flies in Moscow's Red Square

If this announcement were accurate, it would cause great excitement. Yet we have no way of verifying the accuracy and wherever we're located.

Correction

In the Federal Merchandise Mart advertisement appearing on page 75 of this issue, from Miss Anita Angell, Trio, Group C, of the American Flag, page 76, should be read $6.95 instead of $6.95.

FALL WEDDING

Regal, romantic fall bridal gowns are elegantly fashioned for the perfect bride. Our collection includes many exclusive designs. Choose yours.

The Clothes You Live In

The Village Store
2511 Forest Ave., Birmingham, Mich.

The Shops at Westphal
2515 Forest Ave., Birmingham, Mich.

Scotch mischief!

Kiltie & Gams

Gay in a beret and a shirt that has been knitted in the wee hours of the morning.

The Village Store

2511 Forest Ave., Birmingham, Mich.

The Shop at Westphal

2515 Forest Ave., Birmingham, Mich.