Complete Training At Culver Schools

Eight Birmingham youths and three Bloomfield Hills boys were among the 516 juniors who completed eight weeks of training last week at Culver military schools in Indiana.

On August 9, cadets from various schools throughout the state met at 10:30 a.m. at the Detroit station of the Pennsylvania Railroad. They were then taken by passenger train to South Bend, Ind., and then transferred to a train of the Northern Indiana Road.

They were taken to the training center, which is located on the campus of the military school.
