Wears Self-Designed Wedding Gown

Nancy Elaine Wickman designed and made her wedding gown of the imported Italian taffeta featuring short sleeves fitted bodice and square neckline trimmed with silk corded lace finished in velvet.

Gracious folds of the full skirt fell into a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was caught in a band of matching lace and bead pearls. She carried a cascade of orchids and stephanotis.

NANCY exchanged vows and rings with John Stanford Hopper at 3 p.m. Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham. The couple will reside in New York City.

Presiding at the ceremony were Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas A. Wickman of 103 Mill Road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Hopper of Neenah, Wis.

Marilyn Hartwell was maid of honor for a pretty blue taffeta ballgown gown with matching bouquet. She carried a blue satin ribbon.

Josephine was bridesmaid in a white taffeta dress with blue sash. Her flowers were identical to the bride’s bouquet, except that they were pale yellow. Both carried white orchids.
