

Mr. and Mrs. E. Nubar Entertain 600 Guests

By ANNE YOUNG

Saturday evening 60 guests received the jovial hospitality at hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and buffet supper hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nubar on the spacious terrace and lawn of their Vernon drive home.

Upon arrival, the guests were escorted to a circular bar at the far end of the terrace where plain and fancy concoctions were served.

THE HORS D'OEUVRE table was spread with exotic old-world delicacies, imported cheeses, puff paste filled with sea food delicacies, appetizing cold meat platter and relishes.

Lending a festive atmosphere to the affair were gaily colored Japanese lanterns framing the drive.

THE BUFFET supper table was laden with epicurean assortment of salads, casseroles and condiments to augment the variety of sizzling grilled charcoal meats.

Guests were seated at tables on the lawn spread with gay cloths and centerpieces of candles surrounded with floating flower blooms.

Just when the guests felt the gastronomical limit had been reached, large trays of french pastries appeared to tempt the calorie counters.

AFTER DINNER, merry-makers resumed dancing, and for those not wishing liquid refreshment there were heaping platters of
