MRS. ARLOF D. C. HEWSON

Presbyterian Church Is Scene of Wedding

Shirley Elaine Mary Thomas and First Lt. Arlof David Colwell Hewson pledged their nuptial vows Saturday in a 4 o'clock ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in Birmingham.

The Rev. Robert Gibson solemnized the double-ring rites in the presence of 250 guests.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of Briarcrest Knoll, Franklin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee Hamilton Hewson of Windsor, Ontario.

The bride chose a gown fashioned of white chantilly lace over pink peau de soie featuring a sabrina neckline with fitted sleeves and bodice and lace gauntlets. A small crown of seed pearls and rhinestones secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She wore a cultured pearl necklace and earrings which were gifts of the bridegroom's parents. A bouquet of white roses and stephanotis completed the bridal picture.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Robert L. Osborn wore a white nylon waist length gown featuring small pink rosebuds woven into fabric. She wore a pink hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with pink rosebuds.

BRIDESMAIDS were Joan Larson of Saginaw and Nancy Whittaker of Detroit. They wore gowns identical to the matron of honor except their bouquets were made up of pink carnations and white rosebuds.

Linda and Nancy Hopp, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They strewed pink rosebuds as they walked down the aisle in their pink dotted Swiss dresses with matching cummerbunds.

William Smith of Windsor, Ontario stood as best man. Ushers were Michael Hewson, brother of the groom, Gardiner Noble, Ernest Zarour and Dino Tesolin.

MRS. THOMAS selected a beige satin sheath with matching accessories and the groom's mother chose a mink lace sheath with gold accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

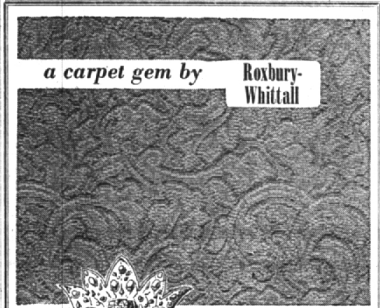

After a reception at the Maplewood club in Royal Oak, the newlyweds left for a three week honeymoon to Quebec. The new Mrs. Hewson changed to a beige dress with white accessories for traveling.

Couple Married In San Diego

Jean Broadwell and Ensign Robert Thompson Garrison III, were united in marriage July 27 at St. Joseph's Cathedral, San Diego, Calif., where Ensign Garrison is stationed.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Broadwell of Dearborn and her husband's parents are the Robert G. Garrisons of Melbourne avenue, Birmingham. Jean chose for her wedding day a white chiffon dress with a fingertip veil. A white orchid with ivy streamers on a white prayer book completed the bridal picture. Myra Breive was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pink dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.
