

Hampton Wagner Appointed Div. Chi For Baxley-Greene

Hampton R. Wagner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mason of 564 Overhill road, has been appointed educational and sales promotion manager of Baxley & Greene, Inc., East Hartford, Conn., according to an announcement made by Robert V. Baxley, president and general manager of the firm.

Baxley & Greene, Inc. is northeastern distributor of Ford tractors and implements. Its territory comprises the six New England states and 16 counties of southeastern New York. Baxley, president and general manager, formerly lived in Franklin and Harvey B. Greene, vice president, is a Bloomfield resident.

Wagner was born in Detroit and lived in Birmingham most of his life. He is a graduate of Birmingham high school, attended Albion college and was graduated from University of Michigan in 1954 with a B.S. degree in forestry. He served with a guided missile unit in New Mexico and went overseas as a solo technician with the aviation engineers.

Beaver Tool Shifts Operational Staff To Gaylord, Mich.

Aubrey E. Streadwick, president and founder of the Beaver Tool and Engineering Corp., of Royal Oak, announced that beginning Aug. 1, the entire sales and administrative operations of the firm will be conducted from new offices at Gaylord.

Streadwick founded the corporation in 1942 and has since made a firm impression in the cutting tool and machine tool accessories field.

STREA DICK Manufacturing Co. will continue to operate in the present location of the Beaver firm on Rochester road in Troy. This division will, as in the past, manufacture the many products of the Beaver Line under which name they are merchandised.

The Streadwick family has lived in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area for many years and have long maintained a summer home in the Gaylord area.

GEORGE H. PRIGGEN, JR.
Appoint Priggen White Star Div. Sales Manager

George H. Priggen, Jr., was named automotive sales manager of the White Star division of Sanyo Mobil Oil Co., Inc. It was announced this week by Walter A. Guthrie, division manager.

The White Star division covers eight marketing districts in Michigan and Ohio.

Priggen came to Detroit in February of this year from Newark, N. J., where he was district manager for the company. Previously he had been a staff assistant, salesman, and marketing clerk.

Upon graduation from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1934, Priggen went to work in a company service station as an attendant.

He resides on Echo road, Bloomfield Hills.
