Franklin Social Briefs

It's a girl for the Charles Plank's of Whately Road.
Diane Elizabeth was born July 20. A fifth child, Diane is the fourth daughter for the Planks.

The French language is flying thick and fast at the Robert Vaillancourt home on Woodside. Visiting for the month are Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Pages and their three children, Paul, Catherine and Andree, of Dallas, Tex., where Pages is a French instructor.

Pages and Mrs. Vaillancourt are brother and sister. Both were raised in French Morocco, schooled in Paris and married Yankee-born spouses, who hail from Massachusetts.

It's a pleasure to check up on returning vacationers these days. It's happy about the weather they've had for those few precious weeks of holiday.

The Dwight Ensigns have returned home from two weeks at Cedar Lodge at Northport, where they shared the first week with the Forrest W. Starretts of Vincennes, Ky. Cynthia Starrett, stayed on camp, the Ensigns for the second week to be with their daughter, Jane. Friday the Ensigns will entertain four couples for cocktails before the St. Dunstan swim party at the George Wellington Smith pool at Bonanza Acres.

The Robert Kerrs of Franklin returned last weekend from a month at Goose Rocks Beach near Kennebunk, Port. Maine. Mrs. Kerr and the children had a wonderful head start on father, who joined them the middle of the month.

The Homer Heidemans of Greenbrier headed east last weekend for a visit to the eastern seaboard.

Campuses at Mount Holyoke college and Smith college were given a once-over by the Henry Weed family of German Mill road while they were visiting the Arden Yinkels at Wilton, Conn., last week. The Weeds' oldest daughter, Sarah, the Ensigns for the second week to be with their daughter, Jane. Friday the Ensigns will entertain four couples for cocktails before the St. Dunstan swim party at the George Wellington Smith pool at Bonanza Acres.

Another campus tour took the Kenneth Bristol's of Fourteen Mile road to Rochester, N. Y., where they checked on arrangements at Eastman school where their daughter, Gayle, is enrolled in the Grosse Pointe, is considering Eastern schools for future studies.

Few will know the heroic effort made by Bob Rottiers and his dad to report in uniform for the Federal League baseball game last week. The Rottiers were vacationing on Little Traverse bay and Bob's conscience was bothering him, cause he felt he was letting his team, the White Sox, down.

So, out in the middle of the lake, father and son decided to reel in their lines and drive into Birmingham, about 300 miles, play the game and drive back again.

Mama learned to play golf when the Paul Robertson's of Franklin Hills drive were at Pointe Aux Barques for the whole month of July. Never having played before, Mrs. Robertson took advantage of the nine-hole course adjoining their cottage and played every afternoon while the small Robertsons were napping.

"Skippy" McWilliams and "Wimpy" Conrad return home soon from six weeks at Lost Trails camp in Montana.

"Casey" McWilliams is at Camp Mah-n-go-tah-see near Hale, while his sister Lynn left a week ago for a tour of the west.

Back home from Camp Cavell are Cindy Roberts, Susan Ricker and Julie Graham.

Camp Mah-n-go-tah-see got a fresh batch of Franklin youngsters Tuesday when Bowie Thomas, John and Bill Adams, Bob and Russ Rottiers and Dickie Probst boarded the bus for a two-week outing.

Although the guests of honor won't be there due to a change of plans, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ricker of Captain's lane are going ahead

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Lamberson and daughters Carolyn and Selma returned Tuesday from a six-week European tour.

While in Lausanne, Switzerland, they attended the wedding of Dr. Lamberson's brother, Ralph Lamberson, to Doris Amy Piper of Philadelphia.

The civil ceremony took place Friday morning with the church service held in the afternoon in with plans for a cocktail party Saturday, expecting about 80 people who were invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. John McBeath of Marblehead, N. Y., the Rickers' house-guests this week.

Last week the Rickers had a surprise visit from an Eastern Airlines pilot, Herbert Ricker of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who dropped in to say hello to his brother and his family between flights.

After three years in Japan, Mrs. James Cavan and her teen-age daughter, Julie, are visiting Mrs. Cavan's sister and her family, the Win Conrads of Seaside, for several weeks before making a new home in Washington, D. C.

Wednesday night Mrs. Stan Krentel surprised her neighbors, the Harlowes of Thimble Mill road, with a party to celebrate their 17th wedding anniversary. The Winwood Hillis group including the Bates with a pair of outdoor torches.

A forty-foot Mathews cruiser gave the Engring Kellys of Redfern a means of seeing Dorr county waters and Sturgeon bay while they vacationed in Wisconsin recently. Generally "sheet sailors," the Kellys found power boating a real luxury.

Kirk Kelly has been at Camp Hayo - Went - Ha near Torch lake with the Ensigns for the second week to be with their daughter, Jane. Friday the Ensigns will entertain four couples for cocktails before the St. Dunstan swim party at the George Wellington Smith pool at Bonanza Acres.

The Harold Roseberys of Wellington road are spending last week at Goose Rocks Beach near Kennebunk, Port. Maine. Mrs. Kerr and the children had a wonderful head start on father, who joined them the middle of the month.

The Homer Heidemans of Greenbrier headed east last weekend for a visit to the eastern seaboard.

Franklin Circles Hold Work Meets

FRANKLIN—Putting long summer days to good use is bound to result in better than average items for sale when December rolls around and the WSCS of the Franklin Community church holds its Christmas bazaar.

Work meetings have been held held every Thursday at 10 a.m. for members of the Fellowship circle who are invited to bring their children and lunches to the home of Mrs. Thomas LePine on Thirteenth Mile road.

THE FRIENDLY circle has also been meeting regularly and will work together Aug. 13 at the home of Mrs. Paul Ziegler on Franklin road and at the home of Mrs. William Hyland on Telegraph road Aug. 27. These meetings start at 10 a.m. with a "bring your own sandwich" policy.

While daughters Jane and Ellen have been at Camp Hanoum in Vermont, "Mama" and Bud Guest had their two-week vacation doing the zoo, Kensington park and two days at the Stratford, Ont., Shakespeare theatre to see "Hamlet" and "Twelfth Night." The rest of the time they eyed on their newly blacktopped driveway. Their 1957 vacation lies at their feet.

The family visited with Scott's family in Shelbyville, Tenn., and Mrs. Scott's family in Fayetteville, Tenn.

The Alexander Neads of Leemoor drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Welsh and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young at a cocktail party and steak roast.

Dennis Foley, young son of the Anthony Foleys of Vernon drive, returned last week from a month's vacation at Camp DeSales in the Irish Hills.
