Members of the group will be busy finishing garments prior to the Ingathering, to take place in October.

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pallas of Auburn and their children, Kenneth and Daryl, just returned from a week at Burt lake in northern Michigan. Mrs. Pallas' mother, sister and brother-in-law joined them for a family gathering.

Another family who have returned from a vacation in northern Michigan are the Richard L. Varleys of Wetherby, who with Margaret Ann, 6, Michael, 4, Mary Eileen, 2, and Collen, 6 months, spent a month at Skegamog Point on Round lake near Traverse City.

The Ernest F. Widlunds of Buckingham are looking forward to this weekend when friends Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Knabe and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ott of Pittsburgh will be guests. This is a return visit as the Widlunds previously visited their friends at their country home near Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. McGuffin of Auburn celebrated their second wedding anniversary recently with their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. William Nance, by having dinner together in Grosse Pointe.

Susan, their daughter had something to celebrate too. July 30 she was 1 year old, and nine of her small friends and their mothers were invited to a party.

Guests were Judy, Billy and Robbie Nance, Jeff and Mike Holmes, Patty, Howard and Page Jones and Jimmy Talpos, all ranging in age from 2 to 5.

The west coast was the destination of the A. A. Togesens of Riverside drive. On a 3-week business and pleasure trip, they visited Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles as well as Dallas and Houston.

While in Los Angeles they attended a convention of National Sales Executives of which Togesen is Detroit chapter president.

Returning home, they remained just long enough to gather together their vacation necessities and boat, and were off to Saginaw Bay for three more weeks.

Richard Sokol, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Sokol of Birwood, left last month for San Diego where he will spend the next two years with the marines.

The Robert W. Moses with children Jeff and Barbara, the C. R. Guilfords of Auburn drive with David and Bobby, and the George Brundretts, formerly of Auburn, with Bruce and Scottie just returned from a week near Bellair.

No Warrant Issued In Churches Death

No warrent has been issued in connection with the traffic death of a four-year-old Redford township boy Aug. 22, according to assistant Oakland county prosecutor's office in Royal Oak.

Assistant Prosecutor William Lang said last week that he would have to investigate further testimony of witnesses who saw the crash in which James L. Churches died.

Lang, in Chicago this week, said he might issue a warrant charging Patrick F. Peel, 68, of 27751 Bloomfield, with negligent homicide if evidence incriminated Peel, who, with the boy's father, Leonard J. Churches, was one of the drivers involved.

Lathrup Social Briefs

Mrs. Richard Mrowczynski of E. California drive and her two sons, Paul and Matthew, spent a relaxing week at Harrisville on Lake Huron.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sampson of Ramsgate spent two weeks visiting in the east. Several days were spent with son William A. Sampson, Jr., and his family in Buffalo, N. Y. Some time was also spent with another son, Robert J. Sampson, and his wife. They were married June 15. Robert Sampson is in the navy and is stationed at Newport, R. I.

The Sampsons also visited Mrs. Sampson's father, Mr. John Schnell, in New York.

Three girls were baptized at St. Bede's church July 28. They were Teresa Ann Beer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Beer; Vicky Ann Maurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Maurer, and JoAnn Turek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Turek.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lanham of Lathrup had an active month during July. With son Jimmy, 10, they began the month at a cottage with friends from Dearborn. They then went to Traverse City.

They were surprised at the number of Lathrup residents they met while there. The cottage they had rented was occupied by the Richard Andersons of San Quentin after they left.

To climax the month the Lanham spent four days at St. Clair inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Viale and daughters Susie and Joann of Lathrup spent a week visiting Viale's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Viale of Calumet near Lake Superior.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Angove of Cambridge, with their children Debbie, Robert and Gary, spent a week at a cottage on Long Lake.

Mrs. Angove's brother, Dr. Paul Butcher of Lathrup, and his family went along. Dr. Robert W. Duncan, Jr.'s, family also enjoyed a visit.

Four-year-old Gary had a birthday while there, also the families held an impromptu party.

For a second pleasant week, the Angoves went to Hidden valley near Gaylord. Among their activities was a canoe trip on the Au Sable river.

Recently returned from California, Mrs. John J. Siefen of Avilla held open house in her new home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Siefen was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance W. Trethric, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeGroat and Miss Josephine Boatman.

Anthony Edward Mitchell, eighth grandchild of Arthur and Councilwoman Elizabeth Mitchell, arrived July 26. He is the son of Sylvia and Robert Mitchell of New York City.

Cranbrook Village Social Briefs
