B & E Loot is 'Several Thousand'

Part-working thieves cleared a Bloomfield Township home of cash, jewelry and other items early Tuesday afternoon, leaving the victims to pick up the pieces and the police to investigate.

The robbery occurred at the home of Robert K. Woodruff, 4230 W. 16 Mile Rd., about 3:45 p.m. Tuesday. A man and a woman reportedly held the couple at gunpoint and took their jewelry, cash and other items.

The initials "B & E" were scrawled on the door, according to police. The initials are known to be used by the Bloomfield Township police department.
