Obituary Notices

Mrs. Albert Kahn, Architect's Widow

Mrs. Ernestine Krolik Kahn, widow of the late internationally famous architect, died Saturday in her Park Shelton hotel apartment in Detroit.

A Birmingham resident for 11 years, her home was on Aspen road when she moved back to Detroit in 1955. The Kahns were pioneers among Detroiters who built summer homes in Oakland county, having built their nearby Walnut Lake summer home property in 1916.

Born in Rochester on Aug. 24, 1869, Mrs. Kahn came to Detroit with her parents in 1871.

Private services were Monday at the chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., in Detroit with burial in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

SHE LEAVES A SON, Dr. Edgar A. Kahn of Ann Arbor; and three daughters, Mrs. Harry L. Winston, Mrs. Edward E. Rothman and Mrs. Martin L. Butzel, all of the Birmingham area.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. David Scheyer, 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Albert Kahn, designer of many Detroit buildings and industrial plants, died Dec. 8, 1942. The Kahns were married Sept. 14, 1896.

Mrs. Kahn graduated in 1892 from the University of Michigan where she was a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. She was active in the group all her life.

SHE WAS A MEMBER OF Temple Beth El, the Detroit Institute of Arts Founders Society and the Bloomfield Hills country club. She belonged to the American Association of University Women since its inception and was a charter member of the Detroit Women's City club. She served on its board of directors.

Mrs. Kahn had been active in civic affairs most of her life.

ALLEN H. ZACHARIAS, 82, of 761 North Woodward, died Friday at William Beaumont hospital. Born Feb. 17, 1875 in Ann Arbor he came to Birmingham two years ago from Rochester.

Mr. Zacharias was a former president and general manager of Detroit Press Steel Co., retiring 30 years ago. A graduate of the University of Michigan in 1897, he was a life member of the Detroit Boat club, and was a member of Bloomfield Hills Country Club and Delta Upsilon fraternity. He was a major in World War I.

His only survivor is his wife, Gertrude.

Services were Monday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in Woodmere cemetery, Detroit.

JAMES R. STEELE, 67, father of Robert J. Steele, 1432 South Bates street, Birmingham, died Saturday after a short illness. He was head of the medical stock department at Ford Motor Co.

Besides his son, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Katie Mae Wilkinson, Mrs. Anna Wily and Mrs. Margaret Wilson; a brother, Joseph and a grand daughter, Sally Ann.

Services were Monday from the William Vasu funeral home with burial at Forest Lawn cemetery.

BRETT LEE BYWATER, 7-week old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bywater of 2140 Yorkshire, died unexpectedly Thursday at William Beaumont hospital. Mr. Bywater is sales representative for the George A. McDevitt Co. in Detroit.

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Scott Berry; his paternal grandparents, the W. M. Bywaters of Pacanock Lake, N. J.; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Peter J. Vanover of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and maternal grandfather, Homer H. Hadfield of Phoenixville, Pa.

Memorial services were in Phoenixville, Pa. Arrangements were by Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

MRS. WALTER S. KEENAN, 89, mother of Lewis C. Keenan, 6246 Hills drive, Birmingham, died Saturday in Clearwater Beach, Fla. She was spending the winter there with her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Trites.

Besides her son and daughter, she is survived by 7 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

Services were Tuesday in Clearwater.

RICHARD A. KIEFER, 50, of 27275 Wellington, Franklin, died Friday at his residence.

He lived in Franklin for seven years and was a member of the Franklin volunteer fire department. He regularly spent hours at home fulfilling the job of fire department treasurer. With like devotion he attended commission, training and work sessions regularly and worked hard and earnestly at fire fighting.

Mr. Kiefer was co-manager of the Mickelberry Food Co., Detroit. He was a member of the German American Soccer club, the Electrical Engineering society of Detroit and was post 4626, Detroit.

Surviving are his wife, Gertrude; a sister, Mrs. Herbert Reich of Hanover, Germany and a brother, Karl of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Services were Monday from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in Franklin cemetery. The Rev. Robert Seacrest officiated.

Death Claims

Mrs. Levinson

Services were Wednesday with burial in Clover Hill Park cemetery for Mrs. Morris Levinson, 82, of Detroit, formerly of Birmingham. Mrs. Levinson died Tuesday at Harper hospital.

She was a resident of Birmingham for 20 years coming from Detroit. Mrs. Levinson was a life member of Birmingham Order of Eastern Star.

Her husband, the late Mr. Levinson, was one of the pioneer merchants in Birmingham. In late 1896, he came to Birmingham and opened his "Economy Store" (clothing and dry goods) on the south side of East Maple, just east of the present Briggs building.

WHEN FRANK FORD built a new business block on the northwest corner of Maple and Woodward in 1898, Levinson occupied one of the stores. By 1905 he occupied five stores in the business block, including the corner location.

In 1916 Levinson's Department Store was forced to vacate for the First State Savings Bank had purchased the Ford property and wanted the corner location for their bank.

Levinson then purchased the Volney Nixon property on the west side of Woodward and built the buildings at 128-132 South Woodward, which is now occupied by the Triangle Furniture Colonial Shop. He conducted business there until he retired in 1937.

MRS. LEVINSON'S survivors are three sons, Aaron of Beverly Hills, Calif., H. Y. Levinson and David of Birmingham; a daughter, Mrs. Saul R. (Bess) Levin of Detroit; seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

RALPH W. BRISTOL, 47, of 31847 Mayfair lane, Birmingham, died Friday in Lansing after a short illness. He was acting head of the Operational Survival Plan Project of the Michigan Office of Civil Defense.

Mr. Bristol, a veteran of World War II, resigned his commission as lieutenant colonel in Korea in 1955. He accepted the civil defense post in October. His task was pre-
