

Hurdy-Gurdy Players Slate Weekend Show

The first production of the Hurdy-Gurdy Players, recently organized children's theatre group, will be presented tomorrow at 4 p.m. and Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at the Birmingham theatre.

A new type of "live" on-stage children's entertainment, with all parts taken by child and teen-age actors, "Simon, Big-Ears," a comedy by Aurand Harris, is directed by Gene Scripps of the Detroit public school department of speech.

A special Friday morning presentation of the play is being sponsored by the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce, who have invited children from a number of Oakland county institutions to be their guests at the showing. Among the groups attending the Jaycees showing will be youngsters from the Oakland county children's home, the Sister Kenny polio clinic, the Sarah Fisher home, Baptist children's home, Pontiac state hospital, and the Salvation Army children's home.

Tickets for the two public showings are available at the Birmingham theatre box office or at Grinnell's, or mail orders will be accepted by phone by Marie Y. Hurd, of 2129 E. Maple, who is producer of the Hurdy-Gurdy Players.

Birmingham area young people with major roles in the production are George Kuehn, Ricki Johnson, Starlet Brause, Robin Ode, Jack Bohr, Terry Giveno, Gene Karrow and Bill Mitchell.

American Legion Honors Delegates To Boys' State

A recognition dinner Saturday evening honored Birmingham senior high school boys who were delegates to Wolverine Boys State in Lansing.

The boys and their parents were guests at the dinner at the American Legion home. The Legion with cooperation from local service clubs, annually sponsors ten boys to participate in the one-week convention.

Guest of honor Saturday was Punch LeMessurier, elected lieutenant governor at this year's Girls state convention in Ann Arbor. Delegate speakers were introduced by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dewey, representing the local Charles Ed.

wards post of the American Legion. Jim Trussell showed films of the convention, and other delegates covered highlights of the week. They are Don Andreae, Bob Benson, Buzz Corsaut, David Geyer, Howard Flijt, Ron Morrow, Warren Risk, Richard Ward and Howdy Willett.
