The Birmingham Humane Society Requests Shelter

To the Editor: As Christmas season approaches, our thoughts are turned towards needy, penniless, etc., etc., but do we ever stop to think of our poor neglected four-footed animals?

We are exploring all to help by donations towards getting a small piece of land to build a shelter to feed these lost, strayed, stolen or abandoned creatures until a suitable home is found for them. It could be your own pet that would seek such shelter.

The Birmingham Humane Society is now in its second year, in which time we have returned over four hundred dogs to their owners, and boarded them until their owner was found.

itions, so we hope all who read this letter will realize the good we are doing and our urgent need for a small shelter.

A Dog Is A Man's Best Friend—so why not let him know it by donating towards a suitable shelter to protect them.

We are at your service seven days a week, twelve hours a day. There are no salaries or high overhead in this organization, but we do need help to obtain a shelter.

WE ARE SURE that every one of you, who will put the Birmingham Humane Society the first on your Christmas list, will not only have a Merry Christmas, but we will have a thankful one.

Our sincere thanks for whatever it may be.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Someone in your family would like a telephone for Christmas

Mom (in the kitchen) Dad (at his bedside) Sis (in her room) Brother (in his room)

EXTENSION PHONES make life easier for grownups. You don't have to race to the phone if it's only a reach away. Give a teen-ager a phone in her room and you give her a feeling of importance, of maturity. Besides, she (or he) will appreciate having conversations in privacy. A telephone is a lasting gift. It will never wear out or go out of style. Additional phones, in your choice of nine decorator colors, cost about $1 a month after a one-time installation charge. Order your gift phones now. It's easy: just call our Business Office.
