Works of Noted Portrait Painter

The works of the famous Virginia Goolkasian are displayed in the Bloomfield Hills home of Michael Deeb, on Groton road. They are the pastels of the Deeb children, Barbara, 10, and Bill, 15 (in photo). Miss Goolkasian stopped last week to do the portraits, enroute to Washington, D.C. from The Sherman Art Gallery in Chicago where she had an exhibit. In Washington, the portrait painter plans to do the wife of the Australian ambassador, Percy Spender. Having received her training at the School of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, and on a European traveling scholarship, Miss Goolkasian feels that a portrait should beautifully express the life and spirit of the individual depicted.

St. Ann's Convent Scene of Open House

This year Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor will set up bedside Christmas trees and Nativity scenes for their patients.

Convent, 700 West Boston boulevard, Detroit.
While the Sister-Nurses carry on their work among sick poor of our communities, distributing food and clothing and medicinal supplies to their patients throughout the year, at Christmas time they endeavor to include a few treats to brighten the dull days of many an ill and aged person, or often times a child.

Once again the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor Auxiliary are planning their annual Christmas Open House on Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. at the former Walter O. Briggs' home, now St. Ann's

Convent, 700 West Boston boulevard, Detroit.
A MUSICAL PROGRAM has been planned as the afternoon's entertainment. Dominicanette Choral group will sing carols, while Rosemary McGann, an accomplished pianist, accompanied by Mrs. R. J. Cahill, Mrs. Frank Gillen and Josephine Carroll, pianists, will provide seasonal music.
There will be the traditional tree and many surprises when Mrs. Edward Charron completes the decorations.
Mrs. Charles J. McCabe and Mrs.

Eugene I. VanAntwerp are extending invitations to preside at the refreshment table to Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Mrs. C. T. Fisher, Jr., Mrs. A. F. Boening, Mrs. H. T. Keating, Mrs. Edward Kelley, Mrs. John A. Reuter and Mrs. Dixon Hall.

AMONG OTHER BIRMINGHAM committee members assisting with arrangements are Mrs. Bernard O'Meara, Mrs. Richard Mrowczynski, Mrs. Robert Ryan, Mrs. Richard Ruen, Mrs. J. P. O'Hara, Jr., Mrs. J. J. Cucchi James Bennett, Mrs. A. K. Bergel, Mrs. America Darin and Mrs. Hanley Dawson.

Smile Awhile —

Bobbie: You say your sister's boy friend chased you out of the living room last night?
Dedie: Yeah, but I got even with him. I put quinine in sister's face powder, and every time he kissed her he made such a face, that now she won't speak to him.
