TV Appearance

Barbara Ann Hess, Adrienne R. Tapp and Julie Ann Walton, all students of Mercy college are enjoying a whirlwind of musical activities. The girls have recently sung at the three day music festival in McAuley auditorium on campus and made their first TV appearance on Monday.

Holiday Festivities

Among the holiday festivities at Forest Lake Country club will be an annual lady bowlers' brunch today, college-Hi Christmas dance Saturday, annual Christmas kiddie party Sunday, dinner and dancing on Dec. 28, and a gala New Year's Eve party and a buffet dinner on New Year's Eve.

Are you thinking of buying a new home? Then read the "For Sale—Houses" columns on the Classified Ad pages of this week's Eccentric.

MOMS Remember Boys

Busy MOMS remember children at Christmas time as they do throughout the year. This season their efforts are for the teenage boys at Oakland County Children's home. Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone (right), chairman for the children's services, and Mrs. Howard Estes, MOMS president, wrap gifts which include belts, razor kits, pencil sets and shoe shine kits. The basket will go to a family where sisters and brothers will be joining for a first Christmas after their brothers' return home from serving in the armed forces.
