

Quarton Students To Present Program

Traditionally and in the spirit of the yuletide season, the Quarton PTA foregoes a general meeting during the month of December. Children of the fifth and sixth grades will present a Christmas program for their parents tonight at 8 p.m. in the school gym.

A cast of 200 will then take the stage in the presentation of a musical play, produced and directed by Miss Phyllis Gardner, Quarton's music teacher.

OPEN EVENINGS

In Community Sing

The community carol sing, one of Birmingham's most loved traditions, is sponsored by the Birmingham Musicale, with the assistance of the Junior Music clubs. Among those taking part in the 5:30 p.m. sing on Christmas eve in Shain Park will be Michael Von Guttenberg and Elizabeth Clark with Mrs. Walter Ruffer, counselor of the Birmingham Musicale Junior League. Their song fest will be around a large lighted tree and nativity scene. Last Thursday the group of young musicians presented a Christmas program including violin, piano, organ and vocal selections.
