Shrubs Planted at Harlan By Many Area Residents
Harlan school was a "bee hive" of activity Saturday morning from 10 o'clock on. Area residents arrived in droves with picks and shovels to do their share in helping to make Harlan an outstanding school. Many holes were dug for fir, flowering trees and all types of shrubs, offered by C. Allen Harlan of North Adams road.

The children had the time of their lives as they worked the trucks carrying the trees from the Harlan grounds to the school. Edw. Crumell, school principal, and many teachers were among those working.
About 12:30 the crowd all gathered back at the Harlan home for a spaghetti brunch served on the terrace "Zakimo style."
"Christmas Phantasy" was presented by Harlan school Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the school's multi-purpose room. The play revolved around a home in the vicinity of Harlan on Christmas eve, Santa's workshop at the North Pole, then home again on Christmas morning.

Tuesday evening the fourth and fifth grade students portrayed Santa, Mrs. Claus, elves and toy soldiers and dolls were from Miss Beverly Runcimans' fourth grade. The morning kindergarten sang "Me and My Teddy Bear." The "Carol Book" by the glee club completed the evening.
On Wednesday evening the third grade class recited their part of Santa, Mrs. Claus, etc. Ornaments, children from Miss Kay Wheeler's second grade. In the scene of "Silk and Skates" were Miss Joy Smith's third graders. The book "Hansel and Gretel" was portrayed by the boys of first grade and the toy soldiers and dolls were from Miss Joy Stephen's second grade.
In their pajamas singing the Teddy Bear song were children of the afternoon kindergarten. The Lollipop and Carol Book were done by the first grade.

After a national survey the Campbell-Ewald Company chose Miss Beverly Runcimans, fourth grade teacher of Harlan school as their subject for a series of photographs. A photographer for the company flew here from New York on Wednesday. The pictures will appear in national magazines in the spring and will be based on the utilization of paper. Names and school location will not be used in the ads.

The Roger Bells of Kirkealdy road are home again after a flight to Florida for a week. Much of their time was spent at the Fountain and the Americana at Miami Beach. Palm Beach was a stop off before their trip home.

The Bruce B. Hathaways of Oak Hill drive announce the birth of a granddaughter, Lori Jean, born to the Harrison K. Cornells of Clawson on Dec. 5. The Cornells have another daughter, Andrea Lynn, 5. The Forrest S. Cornells, Sr. were happy to get the news in Richmond, Va., where they are now residing. They were former residents of Villa road, Birmingham.

Jewel Forrest of E. Long Lake road celebrated her birthday at a luncheon, Dec. 7. The 16 girls joining in the celebration were pupils of the fourth grade at Eastover school and are members of Brownie troop 64. Party games were
