The Eightsome — Atesome club met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards of Thurber road. They are an Eightsome, since there are just four couples but they also are the "atesome" since they capitalize at their meetings on the dinner. Consequently, they laughingly call themselves the Eightsome-Atesomes.

Following the sumptuous potluck dinner, they spent the evening playing canasta and had their Christmas gift exchange.

Members are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Puffer, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding.

Mrs. Harvey Sanderson entertained Thursday at a tea honoring a newcomer to Wing Lake, Mrs. David Dobson of Worlington road. Her mother, Mrs. Roxie Smith.

The Christmas theme was carried out in decorations, even to creating petit-fours topped with their Christmas bells.

Guests were Mrs. Maxwell Fead of Foxcroft, Mrs. Thomas Carter of N. Worlington road, Mrs. Guy Pitts of Wingcroft court, Mrs. Larry Lacroz, Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. Al Remington, all of Wing Lake road.

Houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. David Dobson of Worlington road is Mrs. Dobson's mother, Mrs. Rita Smith of Tucson, Ariz. She came Nov. 30 and will return home Dec. 30.

She is being entertained at a host of parties during her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bohner and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Norman, both of N. Worlington road have just returned from six weeks in Coral Ridge, Fla. near Ft. Lauderdale.

The main objective of the trip was to relax and rest and they all did just that, getting lots of sun and doing some swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Borner of N. Worlington road have returned from two weeks in Islamorada, Fla. This is about 75 miles south of Miami, near the Keys.

They stayed at the Islander hotel where they rested for the entire time with the exception of a bit of deep-sea fishing. Borner was recovering from a recent operation.

Mrs. Jack Townsend of Sheringham road entertained her sewing club today. Following lunch they enjoyed a Christmas gift exchange.

Cub Scouts Plan Christmas Carols

WING LAKE — Cub scouts of pack B-6, Wing Lake school have been busy rehearsing Christmas carols in preparation for their December pack meeting. This year they plan to go caroling rather than staging a program at the school.

Friday evening, between 7:30 and 8:30 the group will begin caroling along Wing Lake road and adjoining streets. Afterward, they will return to the school for hot chocolate and cookies.

This pack held its fourth annual pinewood derby the last of November. Winners of the race were Ricky Kershaw, first speed; John Thornburg, styling and Bob Long, craftsmanship.

Honorable mention went to Skipper Gadd, Ricky Kershaw and Lloyd Engel. Charles Leffler won the den chief race.

Judges for this exciting event were Richard Baird, Chrysler Imperial Stylist; Alex Mair, General Motors engineer and Gerald Tafel, Michigan State trooper.
