AMONG OTHERS enjoying the elaborate decorations including pine boughs bedecked with gaily colored ornaments and the opportunity to mingle with friends on such a festive occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Elroy L. ## Repeat Wedding Vows In Catholic Ceremony Sharon Lee Cummings and Joseph John Beiss exchanged rings and vows this morning at Holy Name church. The Rev. Msgr. Eugene E. Paddock performed the 11 o'clock ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Cummings of Westchester Way and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beiss of Detroit.

FOR HER WEDDING, Sharon chose a gown fashioned of peau de soie designed with a draped bodice and a cocktail length sheath skirt accented with a full back panel. A small cap of matching lace secured her veil of silk illusion. A white prayer book covered with arches completed the bridal picture.

Betty Jane Beiss, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Joan Cummings was her sister's bridesmaid. Attendants wore identical gowns fashioned of blue satin with full tulle overskirts. They carried small bouquets of red carnations and Christmas greens.

Frank Hoffman stood as best man and Julian Engberg was an usher.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a blue suit with matching accessories and Mrs. Beiss chose a beige suit with matching accessories.

A breakfast at Oakland Hills Country club immediately followed the ceremony.

The young couple will spend two weeks in Northern Michigan. Joseph is with the U. S. Army and will leave Jan. 8 for Germany. Sharon will reside with her family until she can join him.

Society deadline, is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
