

PERHAPS

Our last "ad" was not entirely dear to you. It may have been due to the kind of type (or maybe the type of pi) the Eccentric used in setting it up. We do not feel the "ad" was effective because people bought a lot of things that were NOT EVEN IN THE "AD". We wonder sometimes why we continue to do this sort of thing. Do you? Well, anyway, we are still solvent despite The Eccentric's invoices. Incidentally, we are getting a bit of the cost back from the "old rag" because G.R.A. is now involved in FEEDING THE BIRDS—ha, ha, and the blue jays—ha, ha, and the squirrels—ha, ha, ha!

To business! Today we shall try a new tack which may help you in achieving a wonderful state of calm and peace for the week ahead. Let's start!

Since everyone mixes desire with the cost of desire we felt it might be helpful to list our offerings on an entire price basis. In doing this QUALITY is not sacrificed to price (well, your fathers explain this to Willie and you mothers explain it to Susie?)

Bloomfield West Social Briefs

Juanita Ferrill, a student at Miami university, in Ohio, will arrive Dec. 20 to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Ferrill of S. Clunbury.

The Donald E. Buttons, of E. Dartmouth road, are looking forward to Dec. 21 and the arrival of their daughter, Nancy, who is flying in from Denver. The entire family will leave for Oitego on Dec. 24 to remain over the Christmas weekend with Button's family. Nancy will leave the later part of December to return to Denver and her position as a kindergarten teacher in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bolus of W. Dartmouth road started their holiday season off with a cocktail and buffet dinner Dec. 7. Mrs. Bolus won a turkey for bowling the highest over average and decided to share her good fortune with her teammates. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. P.

WALNUT LAKE - BLOOMFIELD FARMS - BRAES
MEADOW LAKE - LONE PINE HEIGHTS

Stevens of Rosedale Park, Mr. and Mrs. N. Monteris, Mr. and Mrs. P. Jamison and Mr. and Mrs. R. Georgeson.

A neighborly demonstration of love and appreciation contributed to the happiest birthday ever experienced by George Christensen of Sunnycrest drive. Christensen, young at 65, enjoys ice skating with the young try on nearby Walnut lake, and he was particularly pleased when many of his "good wishes" were from his young friends. The sisters added their congratulations, some in person and many by telephone. The celebration was arranged by Mrs. John Sadowski.

A race between the stork and genial old St. Nick ended Dec. 10 with that long legged bird the winner. He presented twin daughters, Deborah Jean and Denise Joanne, to Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sutton of Wycliffe drive.

Dance Launches Holiday Season

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—A dance at Glen Oaks country club Saturday evening launched the Christmas season for members of the Bloomfield Farms association.

Adding to the occasion, were white felt name tags representing Christmas tree decorations, that were presented to arriving guests. Music for dancing was furnished by the Howard Carson four-piece combo. Buffet supper was served at midnight. Tables for eight were centered with greens, pine cones and candles. Mrs. C. A. Brundrett was general chairman of the affair. Assisting her were Mrs. Charles Ward, Mrs. George Wirth and Mrs. Herbert Marx, decorations, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. George Wirth, name tags and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brubaker, window orations. Among the cocktail parties preceding the dance were those hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bonnell, all of Dartmouth road. Others were given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Zeigler of Bloomfield lane and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clayton at their home on Clunbury road.

Extension Group Exchanges Gifts

BLOOMFIELD WEST—Thirty members of the Graefield extension group were guests of Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm at her home on Valley Spring drive Dec. 18.

Mrs. Dierlamm gave a demonstration of the inexpensive method of making lovely Christmas decorations for the home. There was a gift, exchange and refreshments were served. Tea committee were Mrs. Richard Pippin and Mrs. Howard Norman.

FACILITIES

This year, the entire ski area has been redesigned to meet the increased needs of beginning and intermediate skiers. Thousands of yards of earth have been moved to make the slopes longer, wider, smoother... and completely safe. The beginner's area, with its easy slope and special slow moving rope tow, is among the finest to be found in the country. All slopes are serviced with electrically powered rope tows and are fully illuminated for night skiing. No matter what the weather, scientific snow making equipment is always on hand to insure uniform, top-notch conditions for a minimum of 100 days each season.

LODGE and RESTAURANT

Hot drinks and food are served throughout the day and evening.
